Reflective Report on Teaching Practice

Introduction:

This report reflects on my recent teaching practice, focusing on my experiences, challenges, and growth.

Experience:

During my placement, I taught a diverse group of students in a primary school setting. I implemented lesson plans and adapted teaching strategies to meet various learning needs.

Challenges:

I faced difficulties in managing classroom behavior and engaging students with different learning styles. Additionally, balancing individual attention with group activities was challenging.

Learning and Growth:

I improved my classroom management skills by incorporating more interactive activities and setting clear expectations. I also learned the importance of flexibility in teaching methods to cater to diverse learners.

Future Goals:

Moving forward, I aim to enhance my skills in differentiated instruction and continue developing effective classroom management strategies. I will seek feedback regularly and stay updated with educational best practices.

Conclusion:

This teaching practice has been a valuable learning experience, highlighting areas for growth and providing insights into effective teaching strategies.

Metropolitan University Formative Assessments and Teacher Professional Learning Dineke E.H. Tigelaar,Douwe Beijaard,2017-10-02 How can formative assessment be used as a means to support teacher professional learning This book presents several studies from different countries on approaches to formative assessment of teachers both before they start working and during their careers These approaches draw on insights from studies into effective teacher professional development Together the chapters in this book provide an overview of the various ways in which formative assessment may be used to support teacher professional learning and shed light on choices that can be made in designing such assessments The studies illustrate how teachers may perceive formative assessment methods how their learning processes might unfold during formative assessment processes and which struggles they may have to deal with during the process The book furthermore addresses questions concerning the impact of formative assessments on teacher learning As such this volume provides theoretical as well as practical prospects as well as challenging ideas for how formative assessment may move further towards being an effective means for supporting teacher learning This book was originally published as a special issue of Teachers and Teaching Theory and Practice Report Writing Michelle Reid,2018-08-02 Practical and concise this is the essential guide to writing effective reports It shows students how to tailor report structures and conventions to different audiences and purposes and how to manage changes in format and requirements so that they have the tools and understanding to write reports with confidence It includes real life examples of student reports to illustrate the features of good report writing and a comprehensive checklist to keep students on track This is an invaluable resource for students of all levels who are required to write reports as part of their course New to this Edition Contains a new section on demonstrating critical analysis in the key parts of a report including the literature review methodology and findings Additional guidance on effective writing style Innovation and Reflexivity in the Research Process Alexander Jungmeister,2016-12-14 What makes the difference between excellent and mediocre research The answer is scientific rigor and innovation based on creativity For both critical reflexivity is essential for delivering research with uniqueness high quality and impact However reflexivity is generally not taught as a subject in universities and there are limited books exploring reflexivity in the research process Addressing this gap and designed for beginners this book provides an accessible model on reflexivity for all its applications during the research process from the first idea to the finished paper book or thesis It includes a number of graphics tables samples and checklists to make the concept easy to grasp and apply It will support students in writing their first scientific assignments and can assist in the more complex research projects of experienced and postdoctoral researchers and PhD students Embedding Sustainability, Corporate Social Responsibility and Ethics in Business Education Borland, Helen,Butler, Michael,Elliott, Caroline,Ormrod, Nathalie,2022-06-14 This cutting edge book finds that alternative teaching and learning methods such as Responsible Management Learning and non linear decision making gameplay can encourage deep learning integrated thinking and a transformative consumer research perspective Forward thinking it emphasises the importance of infusing the values of the United Nations 17 Sustainable Development Goals into future curriculums and discusses the eco-centric embedded transdisciplinary and personally transformative learning and teaching required to achieve these Developing Teachers as Leaders Phil Quirke, Joy Kreeft Peyton, Jill Burton, Carla L. Reichmann, Latricia Trites, 2021-01-04 This book focuses on reflective writing guiding teachers to recognize their potential as professional leaders. The shift to online and blended learning models now favored in education encourages a broader understanding of leadership particularly its growing relevance to teachers. These models combined with reflective writing foster flexible inclusive teacher learning that responds to each teacher's strengths can be used individually and collaboratively to develop teachers as leaders inside and outside the classroom who are critically involved in creating their own professional learning environments. The authors examine leadership in a global range of teaching contexts each chapter raising diverse issues for teachers aspiring to be leaders in this post-COVID world. All royalties from this book are donated to the Instituto dos Cegos da Paraíba Adalgisa Cunha ICPAC a school in João Pessoa Paraíba Brazil that serves the low vision and blind community in the area. For years the Institute has collaborated as a supervised internship site for various teacher education university programs providing inspiring field work experiences such as those described in Chapter 4 by Carla Reichmann. Brill is proud to support this important cause and match the donation to the Instituto dos Cegos da Paraíba Adalgisa Cunha ICPAC.

Phenomenology Shaun Gallagher, 2016-04-30 Shaun Gallagher offers an exciting contemporary perspective of the subject by retrieving many important insights made by the classic phenomenological philosophers updating some of these insights in innovative ways and showing how they directly relate to ongoing debates in philosophy and psychology.

Writing a Translation Commentary Penélope Johnson, 2023-12-05 This essential textbook is a step-by-step guide to how to write a self-reflective translation commentary a key requirement of most courses on translation. Starting with source text analysis it guides students in how to set out a translation strategy and goes through the most common challenging issues encountered thus enabling students to set out their translation priorities in an informed manner. Throughout each chapter there are boxes summarising key concepts and suggestions of tasks and activities as well as recommendations for further reading. The book is supplemented by online resources for students and teachers on the translation studies portal. There are nine PowerPoints based on the chapters of the book that could be used for teaching or self-study. There are also downloadable versions of sample assessment rubrics tables for example selection and checklists. Based on real-life examples of students' work in different language combinations drawing on the author's years of experience of teaching commentary writing this book focuses on several types of language mediation that go beyond the written word such as interpreting audiovisual translation localisation and transcreation. This is a vital textbook for students writing commentaries on translation and interpreting courses a useful resource for supervisors providing students with guidance on how to write a balanced articulate and convincing commentary and a handy reference for professional translators and interpreters needing to explain their translation decisions to clients.

Employability for languages: a handbook Erika Corradini, Kate Borthwick, Angela Gallagher-Brett, 2016-06-25 Languages sit firmly in the skill set of the 21st century graduate In an increasingly multicultural and multilingual job market monolingual graduates are at a disadvantage as the recent Born Global report 2016 notes multilingualism has now become the new normal The contributions in this collection are imbued with this idea and they demonstrate clearly and practically how languages are an aid to global communication The aim of this book is to provide a space to bring together expertise and good academic practice for the benefit of educators and academic audiences We therefore hope that the contributions in this collection will continue to inspire practitioners in the education sectors to embed employability skills into their curricula of studies from as early as secondary school into higher education
