What Is Eez:

The Exclusive Economic Zone Charles Quince, 2019-02-15 Traditionally the law of the sea was divided into the territorial sea and the high seas which accounted for the application of different rules under different circumstances Concerning the territorial sea the coastal state enjoys full sovereignty to the right of innocent passage while under the high seas rules all countries enjoy multifaceted uses of the sea qualified only by the limitations imposed by international law The development of the exclusive economic zone ended this traditional dualism and ushered in guidelines that are embodied within the text of the LOS Convention The Exclusive Economic Zone presents to academia and the general reading public a comprehensive study of the EEZ concept as it relates to the LOS Convention and state practice The Exclusive Economic Zone shows that even through coastal states have the right to develop a 200 miles EEZ and that this right is an integral part of contemporary international relations it is also true that the EEZ concept is shrouded in legal ambiguities Using qualitative and inductive methods the scholarship draws on treaties official proclamations government archives and scholarly works that are germane to the development of the EEZ Students scholars and members of the general public with an interest in international law will find that The Exclusive Economic Zone deepens their understanding of the evolution of the EEZ concept Exclusive Economic Zone, 1984 Law of the Sea Ram Prakash Anand, 1978 The Continental Shelf and the Exclusive Economic Zone / Le plateau continental et la zone économique exclusive Donat Pharand, Umberto Leanza, 2022-02-22 This volume focuses on both the general aspects of two of the most typical institutions introduced by the new Law of the Sea and the specific aspects related to the geographic and economic circumstances of Italy and Canada It is divided into two parts The first part deals with the delimitation of maritime boundaries especially with respect to the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone The problem is approached from both a theoretical and a practical point of view in particular in analyzing not only the more well known controversies in delimitation solved by international agreements or by international courts but also still unsettled disputes in which Italy and Canada are involved The second part deals with the legal regime of the continental shelf and the exclusive zone and the activities in particular exploration and exploitation carried out in them The same approach as in Part One is used in juxtaposing Italian and Canadian views on relative regulation Indeed the volume brings together the diverse legal experience of the two countries Italy and Canada resulting from the different geographic political and economic conditions found in each It is enough to think that Italy is surrounded on three sides by a closed or semiclosed sea the Mediterranean while Canada borders on the Atlantic Pacific and Arctic Oceans The volume was financed by the Italian National Research Council CNR and edited by Donat Pharand Professor Emeritus of International Law at the University of Ottawa and Umberto Leanza Full Professor of International Law at the University of Rome Tor Vergata BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT AHMED, FAISAL, ALAM, M. ABSAR, 2025-07-12 This fully revised and updated fourth edition carries a holistic approach to the new and emerging realities of Indian as well as the global business environment It incorporates not only the new challenges emanating from Covid 19 outbreak but also the development and progress achieved after the pandemic It highlights the enablers shaping up the business environment during post pandemic period This new edition brings forth a contemporary and pragmatic appeal to the learners The text provides an incisive insight into the subject via simple elegant and explicit presentation that amalgamates theory logically and rigorously with the practical aspects Organised in 24 chapters the book aims to develop a broader understanding of the concepts and their applications and dexterously assimilates the latest statistics depicting the national and global perspectives NEW TO THE FOURTH EDITION Presents latest developments and policies Tariff War post pandemic recovery Atmanirbharta self reliance Union Budget 2025 26 FDI policy changes and also about Indian economic scenarios NITI Aayog manufacturing in defence sector climate change Make in India Geo economic aspects GST BREXIT SDGs latest developments in global environment latest WTO issues and others Updated sections sub sections opening and closing cases to keep abreast of new developments Introduces revised tables and figures to represent the scenarios with latest data Includes latest domestic and global policy frameworks influencing business environment HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BOOK Each chapter commences with an opening case to emphasise the topic of importance and ends with a closing case to help in satisfying a learner from the point of view of understanding the chapter Relevant box items call readers attention to practical examples and experiences for in depth learning Case based questions and review questions help in assessing learner s ability to grasp basic concepts Companion website <http://phindia.com> ahmed containing useful resources for the teachers and study aid for the students will be soon available TARGET AUDIENCE MBA BBA M Com B Com Policy Maker

Agro-ecological Zoning Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Soil Resources, Management, and Conservation Service, 1996-01-01 The 200 Mile Exclusive Economic Zone in the Law of the Sea Barbara Kwiatkowska, 2021-09-27 African States and Contemporary International Law Tayo O. Akintoba, 1996 The Third Conference on the Law of the Sea marked a watershed in the emergence of African diplomatic and legal activities within the international system Analysis of those states participation therefore not only provides a template for the study of bloc activity at this level it also adds the comprehensive analysis of African participation at UNCLOS III and finally it should also reveal the means by which states can more effectively impact global political and legislative processes This study evaluates the extent to which the Exclusive Economic Zone EEZ concept represents an attempt by African states to allot to international law the task of correcting inequities between nations and the future implications of such linkage It critically explores and analyzes the conceptual framework that initiated action by African states in UNCLOS III and it examines their attempts to operationalize this framework by their substantive participation in the negotiations Finally the study explores the future implications of African activity in the international legal and political system In this evaluative process the author suggests the need for greater insight in conceptualizing the role of African states as a bloc within the international system Only in this manner can a better appreciation be had of the important role African states are playing as contributors in the formation of contemporary international law The Fisheries Regime of the Exclusive Economic Zone M. Dahmani, 2021-09-27 Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone Camille Goodman, 2021-11-15 Under the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea coastal States have sovereign rights to explore exploit conserve and manage the living resources of the 200 nautical mile exclusive economic zone EEZ However 40 years after the adoption of the Convention there is still a great deal of uncertainty about the nature and extent of these sovereign rights Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone examines the ways in which coastal States can exercise authority on the basis of their sovereign rights over living resources in the EEZ Dr Camille Goodman explores the key concepts of fishing and fishing related activities to establish what vessels and which activities can be regulated by coastal States canvasses the criteria and conditions that coastal States can apply as part of regulating foreign access to their resources and considers the regulation of unlicensed foreign fishing vessels in transit through the EEZ Goodman also examines how such regulations can be enforced within the EEZ and the circumstances under which enforcement can take place beyond the EEZ following hot pursuit A review and analysis of the practice of 145 States identifies the contemporary extent of coastal State jurisdiction over living resources in the EEZ and offers a unique fresh perspective on the underlying and enduring nature of that jurisdiction Underpinned by a rigorous examination of the Convention jurisprudence and literature as well as being supported by carefully documented State practice Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone proposes a more predictable framework within which to resolve jurisdictional challenges in the EEZ Selected Contemporary Issues in the Law of the Sea Clive R. Symmons, 2011-06-09 Drawing on papers presented at Trinity College Dublin in 2010 Selected Contemporary Issues in the Law of the Sea provides a cohesive discussion on various challenges involved with the law of the sea International experts cover topics such as straight baselines high seas EEZ jurisdiction the definition of and jurisdiction over piracy and submissions to the CLCS relating to outer continental shelf claims in disputed areas In addition Selected Contemporary Issues in the Law of the Sea delves into topics seemingly neglected in contemporary literature The permissible use of artificial constructions as basepoints is discussed for example as are human rights issues involved in boarding non flag ships and in the context of piracy issues such as the Japanese and NGO Greenpeace attitudes to current interventions so called eco piracy by NGO ships to prevent Japanese whaling activities in Antarctic waters Specially Protected Marine Areas in the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) Thomas Dux, 2011 This thesis examines the question of what States are legally empowered to do under international law when they seek to protect certain areas of their Exclusive Economic Zone EEZ In this context the regulation of shipping and other human activities under the Law of the Sea Convention and in particular the regime for special areas under Article 211 6 of the Convention are addressed Global and regional instruments containing mechanisms to protect specific areas are discussed and relevant State practice is considered with a view to possible implications on customary international law Finally guidance is given as to what States can practically do to protect specific areas of their EEZ for environmental reason Series Schriften zum See und Hafenrecht Vol 18 A Sea Change: The Exclusive Economic Zone and Governance Institutions for Living Marine Resources Syma A. Ebbin, Alf H. Hoel, Are Sydnes, 2005-01-07 This is the first systematic assessment of the international 200 mile exclusive economic zone To date 145 states have ratified the Law of the Sea Convention and most have established EEZs This volume focuses on the specific nature of the EEZ and the construction and evolution of institutions stemming from its introduction specifically examining developments at local national and international levels Proceedings of the 1991 Exclusive Economic Zone Symposium on Mapping and Research Geological Survey (U.S.), 1992 The Oxford Handbook of the Law of the Sea Donald R. Rothwell, Alex G. Oude Elferink, Karen N. Scott, Tim Stephens, 2015-03-26 Human activities have taken place in the world's oceans and seas for most of human history With such a vast number of ways in which the oceans can be used for trade exploited for natural resources and fishing as well as concerns over maritime security the legal systems regulating the rights and responsibilities of nations in their use of the world's oceans have long been a crucial part of international law The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea comprehensively defined the parameters of the law of the sea in 1982 and since the Convention was concluded it has seen considerable development This Oxford Handbook provides a comprehensive and original analysis of its current debates and controversies both theoretical and practical Written by over forty expert and interdisciplinary contributors the Handbook sets out how the law of the sea has developed and the challenges it is currently facing The Handbook consists of forty chapters divided into six parts First it explains the origins and evolution of the law of the sea with a particular focus upon the role of key publicists such as Hugo Grotius and John Selden the gradual development of state practice and the creation of the 1982 UN Convention It then reviews the components which comprise the maritime domain assessing their definition assertion and recognition It also analyses the ways in which coastal states or the international community can assert control over areas of the sea and the management and regulation of each of the maritime zones This includes investigating the development of the mechanisms for maritime boundary delimitation and the decisions of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea The Handbook also discusses the actors and intuitions that impact on the law of the sea considering their particular rights and interests in particular those of state actors and the principle law of the sea institutions Then it focuses on operational issues investigating longstanding matters of resource management and the integrated oceans framework This includes a discussion and assessment of the broad and increasingly influential integrated oceans management governance framework that interacts with the traditional law of the sea It considers six distinctive regions that have been pivotal to the development of the law of the sea before finally providing a detailed analysis of the critical contemporary issues facing the law of the sea These include threatened species climate change bioprospecting and piracy The Handbook will be an invaluable and thought provoking resource for scholars students and practitioners of the law of the sea The International Law of the Sea Yoshifumi Tanaka,2023-03-02 This new edition has been revised and updated to provide current and comprehensive coverage of essential issues of the international law of the sea in a systematic manner This book presents two paradigms of the law of the sea the law of divided oceans and the law of our common ocean It covers contemporary issues such as protection of the marine biological diversity marine plastic pollution the Arctic and impacts of climate change on the oceans Following the clear and accessible approach of previous editions with many illustrations and tables The International Law of the Sea continues to help students to best understand the law of the sea The Predominant Interest Concept and Maritime Delimitation Nicholas A. Ioannides,2025-05-14 This accessible book provides an introduction to the predominant interest concept covering global case studies and landmark legal proceedings around maritime delimitation Nicholas A Ioannides provides a comprehensive overview of the delimitation process identifying the criteria used to determine the delimitation of maritime areas Proceedings of the 1987 Exclusive Economic Zone Symposium on Mapping and Research Geological Survey (U.S.),1988 Proceedings of the 1987 Exclusive Economic Zone Symposium on Mapping and Research John F. Elder, Lawrence H. Smith, Richard W. Will, Ronald Charles Severson, Hansford T. Shacklette, William B. Krohn,1988 Law, Force and Diplomacy at Sea (Routledge Revivals) Ken Booth,2014-06-27 Law Force and Diplomacy at Sea first published in 1985 is one of the few comprehensive treatments on the subject from a strategic perspective It offers a detailed strategic analysis of the background and outcome of the Third UN Conference on the Law of the Sea and its naval implications The interplay between the interest of the naval powers in freedom of navigation and the interest of coastal states in control provides the setting for the strategic problems The sea is taking on more properties of the land it is becoming territorialised and this is presenting fresh challenges and opportunities to which navies and their national governments have to respond This study is designed for students of naval strategy for international lawyers and for students of international affairs who wish to think about the important security questions in the maritime environment
