Selected Short Fiction David Flynn, 2015-01-29 More short fiction from an author with 30 published short stories. These range from science fiction to Southern realism. Collected Short Fiction of V. S. Naipaul V. S. Naipaul, 2011-04-12 For the first time, the Nobel Prize-winning author's stunning short fiction is collected in one volume with an introduction by the author. Naipaul is the world's writer, a master of language and perception. The New York Times Book Review: Over the course of his distinguished career, V S Naipaul has written a remarkable array of short fiction that moves from Trinidad to London to Africa. Here are the stories from his Somerset Maugham Award-winning Miguel Street, in which he takes us into a derelict corner of Trinidad's capital to meet, among others, Man Man, who goes from running for public office to staging his own crucifixion. The tales in A Flag on the Island meanwhile roam from a Chinese bakery in Trinidad to a rooming house in London. And in the celebrated title story from the Booker Prize winning In a Free State an English couple traveling in an unnamed African country discover under a veneer of civilization a landscape of squalor and ethnic bloodletting No writer has rendered our postcolonial world more acutely or prophetically than V S Naipaul or given its upheavals such a hauntingly human face the nuanced landscapes of Conrad's imagination exploring the often treacherous waters of the human condition Glass! Love!! Perpetual Motion!!! Paul Scheerbart, 2014-10-19 German writer critic and theorist Paul Scheerbart 1863-1915 died nearly a century ago but his influence is still being felt today. Considered by some a mad eccentric and by others a visionary political thinker in his own time, he is now experiencing a revival thanks to a new generation of scholars who are rightfully situating him in the modernist pantheon. Glass Love Perpetual Motion is the first collection of Scheerbart's multifarious writings to be published in English. In addition to a selection of his fantastical short stories, it includes the influential architectural manifesto Glass Architecture and his literary tour de force Perpetual Motion: The Story of an Invention. The latter, written in the guise of a scientific work complete with technical diagrams, was taken as such when first published but in reality is a fiction, albeit one with an important message. Glass Love Perpetual Motion is richly illustrated with period material, much of it never before reproduced, including a selection of artwork by Paul Scheerbart himself. Accompanying this original material is a selection of essays by scholars, novelists, and filmmakers commissioned for this publication to illuminate Scheerbart's importance then and now in the worlds of art, architecture, and culture. Coedited by artist Josiah McElheny and Christine Burgin, with new artwork created for this publication by McElheny, Glass Love Perpetual Motion is a long overdue monument to a modern master.

Collected Fiction Irwin Shaw, 2017-10-03 Three acclaimed novels plus collected short fiction by the New York Times bestselling author of Rich Man Poor Man, The Young Lions. Irwin Shaw's New York Times bestselling debut is widely considered one of the four great World War II novels, along with From Here to Eternity, The Naked and the Dead, and The Caine Mutiny. Ambitious in its scope and robust in its prose, this masterpiece is also deeply humanistic, presenting the reality of war as seen through the eyes of three ordinary soldiers: a Nazi sergeant, a Jewish American infantryman, and an idealistic urbanite from New York City. The Boston Globe: Bread Upon the Waters. No good deed goes unpunished. The Strands are a happy family, though not without their financial struggles. When their daughter helps a mugging victim by bringing him home, he turns out to be a Wall Street lawyer whose gratitude is as boundless as his bank account. But with each successive reward, the Strand family moves farther away from the wealth of happiness they already possessed. Short Stories. Five Decades. Shaw's prolific output of short stories appeared regularly in the pages of the New Yorker and Esquire for over half a century. These sixty-three stories include such iconic works as The Eighty Yard Run and The Girls in Their Summer Dresses. The Troubled Air. Five employees of Clement Archer's popular radio show are accused Communists. He will have to fire them to keep his show on the air. But it's not a simple choice; whatever Archer decides, he won't be able to keep his hands clean. In Shaw's provocative classic about courage and morality at the height of McCarthyism.
