Making It Ellen T. Meiser,2024-10-11 The restaurant industry is one of the few places in America where workers from lower class backgrounds can rise to positions of power and prestige Yet with over four million cooks and food preparation workers employed in America s restaurants not everyone makes it to the high status position of chef What factors determine who rises the ranks in this fiercely competitive pressure cooker environment Making It explores how the career path of restaurant workers depends on their accumulation of kitchen capital a cultural asset based not only on their ability to cook but also on how well they can fit into the workplace culture and negotiate its hierarchical structures After spending 120 hours working in a restaurant kitchen and interviewing fifty chefs and cooks from fine dining establishments and greasy spoon diners across the country sociologist Ellen Meiser discovers many strategies for accumulating kitchen capital For some it involves education and the performance of expertise others climb the ranks by controlling their own

emotions or exerting control over coworkers Making It offers a close and personal look at how knowledge power and interpersonal skills come together to determine who succeeds and who fails in the high pressure world of the restaurant kitchen The American Kitchen Magazine ,1901 Look Who's Cooking Jennifer Rachel Dutch,2018-08-03 Home cooking is a multibillion dollar industry that includes cookbooks kitchen gadgets high end appliances specialty ingredients and more Cooking themed programming flourishes on television inspiring a wide array of celebrity chef branded goods even as self described foodies seek authenticity by pickling preserving and canning foods in their own home kitchens Despite this claims that no one has time to cook anymore are common lamenting the slow extinction of traditional American home cooking in the twenty first century In Look Who's Cooking The Rhetoric of American Home Cooking Traditions in the Twenty First Century author Jennifer Rachel Dutch explores the death of home cooking narrative revealing how modern changes transformed cooking at home from an odious chore into a concept imbued with deep meanings associated with home family and community Drawing on a wide array of texts cookbooks advertising YouTube videos and more Dutch analyzes the many manifestations of traditional cooking in America today She argues that what is missing from the discourse around home cooking is an understanding of skills and recipes as a form of folklore Dutch's research reveals that home cooking is a powerful vessel that Americans fill with meaning because it represents both the continuity of the past and adaptability to the present Home cooking is about much more than what is for dinner it's about forging a connection to the past displaying the self in the present and leaving a lasting legacy for the future Conversations Behind the Kitchen Door Emmanuel Laroche,2022-11-08 Conversations Behind the Kitchen Door offers an insider's look into culinary trends through the words of acclaimed and professionally recognized chefs My Mother's Kitchen Peter Gethers,2017-04-04 My Mother's Kitchen is a funny moving memoir about a son's discovery that his mother has a genius for understanding the intimate connections between cooking people and love Peter Gethers wants to give his aging mother a very personal and perhaps final gift a spectacular feast featuring all her favorite dishes The problem is although he was raised to love food and wine he doesn't really know how to cook So he embarks upon an often hilarious and always touching culinary journey that will ultimately allow him to bring his mother's friends and loved ones to the table one last time The daughter of a restaurateur the restaurant was New York's legendary Ratner's Judy Gethers discovered a passion for cooking in her 50s In time she became a mentor and friend to several of the most famous chefs in America including Wolfgang Puck Nancy Silverton and Jonathan Waxman she also wrote many cookbooks and taught cooking alongside Julia Child In her 80s she was robbed of her ability to cook by a debilitating stroke But illness has brought her closer than ever to her son Peter regularly visits her so they can share meals and he can ask questions about her colorful past while learning her kitchen secrets Gradually his ambition becomes manifest he decides to learn how to cook his mother the meal of her dreams and thereby tell the story of her life to all those who have loved her With his trademark wit and knowing eye Peter Gethers has written an unforgettable memoir
