Enoch, 2020-06-01 Charade Parade By Edwin D Enoch We all are going the same places in life we just take different roads to get there and throughout our journeys many of us only get to do what we have to do instead of what we love marching to the beat so to speak In this march who we are underneath is not who we display to the world thus creating the Charade Parade This collection of poetry expresses who Edwin Enoch is beyond the Charade Parade and he wishes who his readers are beyond their daily charade will connect with who he is underneath and see that his experience may not be so different from their own and they will gain a sense of connectivity Game Frame Aaron Dignan, 2011-03-08 Ever wonder why teens can spend entire weekends playing video games but struggle with just one hour of homework Why we're addicted to certain websites and steal glances at our smartphones under the dinner table Or why some people are able to find joy in difficult or repetitive jobs while others burn out It's not the experiences themselves but the way they're structured that matters All our lives we've been told that games are distractions playful pastimes but unrelated to success In Game Frame Aaron Dignan shows us that the opposite is true games produce peak learning conditions and accelerated achievement Here the crucial connection between the games we love to play and the everyday tasks goals and dreams we have trouble realizing is illuminated Aaron Dignan is the thirty something founder of a successful digital strategy firm that studies the transformative power of technology in culture He and his peers were raised on a steady diet of games and gadgets ultimately priming them to challenge the status quo of the modern workplace What they learned from games goes deeper than hand eye coordination instead this generation intrinsically understands the value of adding the elements of games into everyday life Game Frame is the first prescriptive explanation of what games mean to us the human psychology behind their magnetic pull and how we can use the lessons they teach as a framework to achieve our potential in business and beyond Games are a powerful way to influence and change behavior in any setting Here Dignan outlines why games and play are such important trends in culture today and how our technology from our iPhones to our hybrid cars primes us to be instinctive players Game Frame tackles the challenging task of defining games and the mechanics that make games work from several perspectives then explores these ideas through the lens of neuroscience Finally Dignan provides practical tips for using basic game mechanics in a variety of settings such as motivating employees at work or encouraging children at home giving readers the tools to develop their own games to solve problems in their everyday lives Illuminated throughout with a series of real world examples and hypothetical scenarios Game Frame promises a crash course in game design and behavioral psychology that will leave the reader and by extension the world itself more productive Revolutionary visionary practical and time tested Game Frame will change the way you approach life

Finding a Replacement for the Soul Brett Bourbon, 2009-06-30 Approaching the study of literature as a unique form of the philosophy of language and mind as a study of how we produce nonsense and imagine it as sense this is a book about our human ways of making and losing meaning Brett Bourbon asserts that our complex and variable relation with language defines a domain of meaning and being that is misconstrued and missed in philosophy in literary studies and in our ordinary understanding of what we are and how things make sense Accordingly his book seeks to demonstrate how the study of literature gives us the means to understand this relationship The book itself is framed by the literary and philosophical challenges presented by Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Wittgenstein s Philosophical Investigations With reference to these books and the problems of interpretation and meaning that they pose Bourbon makes a case for the fundamental philosophical character of the study of literature and for its dependence on theories of meaning disguised as theories of mind Within this context he provides original accounts of what sentences fictions non fictions and poems are produces a new account of the logical form of fiction and of the limits of interpretation that follow from it and delineates a new and fruitful domain of inquiry in which literature philosophy and science intersect Table of Contents Preface Note on Abbreviations Introduction What Are We When We Are Not Part I The Surface of Language and the Absence of Meaning 1 From Soul Making to Person Making 2 The Logical Form of Fiction 3 The Emptiness of Literary Interpretation 4 To Be But Not To Mean 5 How Do Oracles Mean Part II Senses and Nonsenses Joyce s Finnegans Wake and Wittgenstein s Philosophical Investigations 6 A Twitterlitter of Nonsense Askesis at Finnegans Wake 7 The Analogy between Persons and Words 8 The Human Body Is the Best Picture of the Human Soul 9 The Senses of Time 10 Being Something and Meaning Something Bibliography Acknowledgments Index This is an adventurous and unusual book Bourbon moves back and forth between literary and philosophical contexts with ease showing in multifarious ways how the one can often in unexpected ways illuminate the other Throughout these wide ranging explorations Bourbon uncovers a good deal about both the nature of literary meaning and our distinctive if tellingly irreducible relations to literary texts Garry L Hagberg author of Art as
