African Armed Forces Journal, 2005-02 Silencing the Guns in Africa Antonio Garcia, Jacob Udo-Udo Jacob, 2025-03-14 The scholarship of this book is drawn from local and international experts by framing critically a number of discourses on matters of security conflict violence and peace on the African continent It is indeed a breath of fresh air to the scientific community largely because it contributes to the on going debates on security issues Dr Ntsikelelo Benjamin Breakfast Director of the Center for Security Peace and Conflict Resolution at Nelson Mandela University This book makes a deep contribution to scholarly literature on conflict studies peacekeeping and peacebuilding in Africa Written largely from the perspective of the applied social sciences it is empirically rich and offers refreshing insights into social behaviour in military contexts This is a timely contribution because current public discourse in South Africa is centred on the gains and missed opportunities of thirty years of democracy and new lenses are welcome Many of the chapters reflect South African experiences This is to be welcomed as it demonstrates that scholars and practitioners from the country are reflecting on the complexities of South African experiences of defence and security matters in contemporary times Dr Sandy Africa Director of Research at Mapungubwe Institute for Strategic Reflection MISTRA This volume brings together the voices of scholars and practitioners a diverse group of writers who are passionate about and committed to creating a safer more prosperous and peaceful Africa Each with their own specialism this work combines many different world views and approaches Conflict in Africa is an impossibly broad topic to cover in a single edited publication and so we focus on a select number of case studies expositions and themes ISSUP : Bulletin, 2006 South Africa Murray Faure, Jan-Erik Lane, 1996-08-15 The Republic of South Africa RSA held its first fully democratic elections in April 1994 They were a highly visible signal that the RSA is really moving from the era of apartheid towards a democratic constitutional state The process is an archetypal case of a negotiated transition of a regime and as such it is of great interest to students of constitutional mechanisms The contributors to this book leading South African political scientists discuss the process the difficulties and the achievements in the transformation of the RSA's political and legal institutions They address various aspects of constitutional design and their interactions with social forces They examine the new constitution the roles of president and executive the electoral party and parliamentary systems and the Constitutional Court They look at the public service at questions of labour and corporatism at the RSA's changing external relations and at the position of the armed forces The new government's Reconstruction and Development Programme of which so much is expected is seen to be particularly vulnerable to the pull of opposing forces
