Violence Karl Anton Roberts, Gerry Campbell, Glen Lloyd, 2013-11-25 Honor based violence HBV is a crime committed to protect or defend the honor of a family and or a community It is usually triggered by the victim s behavior which the family and or community regards as causing offense or dishonor HBV has existed for thousands of years but has only very recently become a focus of law enforcement policy makers Melancholy Accidents Carolyn Conley, 1999-01-01 While most scholarly attention on violence in post famine Ireland has focused on political crimes this book examines non political violence which made up the vast majority of incidents in that period Ireland s overall crime rate was below that of England and Wales but the proportion of violent offenses to non violent ones was significantly higher in Ireland In Melancholy Accidents Carolyn Conley decries the commonly held belief that recreational and domestic violence was generally the result of understandable emotions Conley demonstrates that the meaning of violence in post famine Ireland was complex personal and often deeply traditional and idiosyncratic This unique book will be valuable to a wide variety of scholars including those who study women s history European history and social problems
