system of the 1960s when illiteracy was viewed as a character defect that could be rectified by stern discipline and regular beatings and takes us on an evocative visit to the not so distant past introducing the kind and eccentric family who never gave up on him and the array of teachers who did We follow the intrepid progress of a boy who could write only one word his name spelled backwards to a man who finally found his true calling after a series of setbacks and false starts only to make the late discovery that he had travelled through life unaware of a second neurodiversity hiding in plain sight Heart warming hilarious raw and shocking NHOJ is a tribute to overcoming challenges ignoring barriers and holding on to hope in a world that initially seems to have no place for you
