Taking All They Ve Got:

Bone Dust White Karin Salvalaggio, 2014-05-13 Karin Salvalaggio's outstanding crime fiction debut Bone Dust White is an absolutely stunning work that signals the entrance of a major new talent. Someone is knocking at the door to Grace Adams' house and he won't stop. Grace thinks she knows who it is but when she goes to her second floor window for a look she sees a woman she doesn't recognize. The woman isn't alone for long before a man emerges from the dark of the surrounding woods, stabs her, and leaves her for dead. Trying to help, Grace goes to the woman and is shocked to find that it's her mother, Leanne, a woman who abandoned her 11 years before. There's nothing she can do and Leanne is already past the point where she can tell Grace what happened all those years ago or why she came back now. While Grace was only a child when Leanne left her, Detective Macy Greeley has been waiting for Leanne ever since she disappeared from Collier, Montana. She's looking to close a case that has been haunting the town for far too long, but Collier is a hard-bitten place where the people are fierce when it comes to keeping their feuds between themselves and keeping secrets hidden in the past. The Best Horror of the Year

Ellen Datlow, 2009-10-01 An Air Force Loadmaster is menaced by strange sounds within his cargo; a man is asked to track down a childhood friend who died years earlier; doomed pioneers forge a path westward as a young mother discovers her true nature; an alcoholic strikes a dangerous bargain with a gregarious stranger; urban explorers delve into a ruined book depository finding more than they anticipated; residents of a rural Wisconsin town defend against a legendary monster; a woman wracked by survivor's guilt is haunted by the ghosts of a tragic crash; a detective strives to solve the mystery of a dismembered girl; an orphan returns to a wicked witch's candy house; a group of smugglers find themselves buried to the necks in sand; an unanticipated guest brings doom to a high class party; a teacher attempts to lead his students to safety as the world comes to an end around them. What frightens us, what unnerves us, what causes that delicious shiver of fear to travel the lengths of our spines? It seems the answer changes every year. Every year the bar is raised, the screw is tightened. Ellen Datlow knows what scares us: the twenty-one stories and poems included in this anthology were chosen from magazines, webzines, anthologies, literary journals, and single author collections to represent the best horror of the year. Legendary editor Ellen Datlow, Poe New Tales, inspired by Edgar Allan Poe, winner of multiple Hugo, Bram Stoker, and World Fantasy awards, joins Night Shade Books in presenting The Best Horror of the Year: Volume One. McClellan's Own Story George B.

McClellan, 1998-05 Born in Philadelphia on December 3, 1826, George B. McClellan graduated from West Point in 1846 before serving in the Mexican War. At the start of the Civil War, McClellan was put in a position of leadership and, after a successful campaign in Virginia, he was given command of the Army of Potomac, one of the Union's strongest armies. He led the Peninsular campaign with almost 100,000 troops under his command, marching toward Richmond. Although McClellan was a brilliant administrator who possessed good strategic sense, the record shows that he was overcautious and consistently overestimated the strength of his adversaries, always demanding more men and supplies before undertaking offensive action.

In 1862 McClellan disagreed with Abraham Lincoln and advanced on Richmond from the east instead of moving directly against the Confederates at Manassas Virginia Although the Union army was successful during the Peninsular campaign their failure to take Richmond the Confederate capital gave the South new motivation Dissatisfied with the campaign and McClellan Lincoln replaced him with Henry W Halleck as commander in chief After the defeat of the Union army in the Second Battle of Bull Run he was again placed in active command of the Army of the Potomac His overcautiousness at the battle of Antietam on September 17 1862 led to a draw instead of a Union victory Because of the heavy Union losses he was again relieved of his command by Lincoln for the duration of the war The Democratic Party nominated McClellan in 1864 as its candidate for president a peace platform but Abraham Lincoln defeated him After serving as governor of New Jersey From 1878 to 1881 McClellan died in Orange New Jersey on October 29 1885
