Talk with Your Mouth Full Dan Smith, Steve McDonagh, 2011-04-15 The original winners of The Next Food Network Star bring their signature style of casual entertaining to their first book. These Hearty Boys don't solve literary mysteries but they sure are great at demystifying party throwing. Dan Smith and Steve McDonagh are two guys who never attended culinary school yet build one of Chicago's most popular catering businesses and now run the popular restaurant Hearty. Their self-deprecating natural approach to cooking which made them such a hit on the Food Network comes through on every page. Packed with exciting but accessible recipes, clever how-to tips and a gaggle of tales from the catering trenches, this is a truly entertaining guide to the art of entertaining. Featured recipes include hors d'oeuvres, starters, main dishes, side dishes, desserts and libations. Nibble on Gorgonzola Fig and Pecan Cheese Terrine or pass Seared Ahi on Wonton Crisps. Or sit down to enjoy Balsamic Mushroom Chicken and Oven roasted Root Veggies and finish the meal with Chocolate Cream Cheese Cupcakes. Talk with Your Mouth Full offers help on everything from chilling wine to decorating a buffet table as well as complete menus and planning advice. It's the ultimate guide to enjoying good food and good company.

Mrs Beeton's Jam-making and Preserves Mrs Isabella Beeton, 2014-07-31 This useful book of recipes from the 1920s includes 400 recipes for jam, marmalade, jelly, pickles, chutneys and wines. It also provides detailed guidance on all aspects of preserving: bottling, sterilising, drying and crystallising fruits. The recipes are based on those by Mrs Beeton including the now famous carrot jam and they have been updated to include advances in techniques that were common in the early twentieth century. Familiar recipes are included alongside more exotic preserves like Harvey Sauce, Cucumber Ketchup, Hawthorn Liqueur and Maidenhair Syrup, making this an entertaining and exciting preserving adventure. Mrs Beeton's Jam making and Preserves provides a fascinating insight into skills and methods that were in use before the invention of the food processor and electric hob and before the presence of a refrigerator in every home Among other methods jars of jam are sealed with paper brushed with the white of an egg and some vegetable preserves are topped with clarified mutton fat to create an air tight seal the preparation of some ingredients takes many days and the quantities of sugar for example many surprise the modern jam maker However all these recipes can be adapted to suit modern tastes and techniques in jam making and to take advantage of modern technology Though perhaps not for the beginner this book offers a wealth of preserving challenges for the confident cook From recipes for ingredients not commonly used today to unusual combinations and preserves that quite frankly sound disgusting and or positively dangerous have a look at the Mustapha Ketchup recipe try at your own risk this collation is an enjoyable exploration of the history of preserving and a rare opportunity to experience the tastes that a previous generation enjoyed
