(Analyzing) The art of adapting Fairy Tales Conny Eissfeld, 2015-02-18 What happened to the classic fairy tale Do we still read the old and dusty tales of wonder to our children or would we rather take them to the cinema The fairy tale boom has reached Hollywood where popular tales are currently transformed into entertainment movies Makers of films and TV series have become the storytellers of the digital age a transition that frequently leads to discussions about how these new forms limit or contribute to the further development and preservation of the traditional fairy tale But what exactly is a traditional fairy tale The book follows the history of the tale how it has been changing colors and how it has been adapting and surviving for centuries The main focus lies on the literary and multi medial analysis of two popular fairy tales Rapunzel and Little Red Riding Hood which have not only been adapted to the screen recently but have been repeatedly altered throughout the centuries Follow the journey of the fairy tale from its most basic form i e oral storytelling to a written and illustrated commitment that shaped the general image of fairy tales for forthcoming generations to its newest form the visualization through new and digital media The Lent Comic Art Classification System John A. Animation in the Middle East Stefanie Van de Peer, 2017-02-27 The internationally acclaimed films Persepolis and Waltz with Bashir only hinted at the vibrant animation culture that exists within the Middle East and North Africa In spite of censorship oppression and war animation studios have thrived in recent years in Egypt Iran Iraq Lebanon Morocco Palestine Syria and Turkey giving rise to a whole new generation of entrepreneurs and artists The success of animation in the Middle East is in part a product of a changing cultural climate which is increasingly calling for art that reflects politics Equally the professionalization and popularization of film festivals and the emergence of animation studios and private initiatives are the results of a growing consumer culture in which family friendly entertainment is big business Animation in the Middle East uncovers the history and politics that have defined the practice and study of animation in the Middle East and explores the innovative visions of contemporary animators in the region

Identity, Nationhood and Bangladesh Independent Cinema Fahmidul Haq, Brian Shoemith, 2022-07-08 This book analyses how independent filmmakers from Bangladesh have represented national identity in their films The focus of this book is on independent and art house filmmakers and how cinema plays a vital role in constructing national and cultural identity The authors examine post 2000 films which predominantly deal with issues of national identity and demonstrate how they tackle questions of national identity Bangladesh is seemingly a homogenous country consisting 98% of Bengali and 90% of Muslim This majority group has two dominant identities Bengaliness the ethno linguistic identity and Muslimness the religious identity Bengaliness is perceived as secular modern whereas Muslimness is perceived as traditional and conservative However Bangladeshi independent and art house filmmakers portray the nationhood of the country with an enthusiasm and liveliness that exceeds these two categories In addition to these categories the authors add two more dimensions to the approach to discuss identity Popular Religion and Transformation The study argues that these identity categories are represented in the films and that they both reproduce and challenge dominant discourses of nationalism Providing a new addition to the discourse of contemporary national identity the book will be of interest to researchers studying international film and media studies independent cinema studies Asian cinema and South Asian culture politics and identity politics
