Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli,Aleksandra Djurasovic,Renata Summa,2021-05-24 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city s complex dynamics Accordingly the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio political contingencies Events groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships Further and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno national divisions The book engages with socio political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity

Water Cycle in a River Basin Context Alberto Galvis-Castaño,2019-08-14 The protection of water resources from deterioration in quality by pollution discharges is probably the biggest challenge in sustainable water resources management in the recent decades In practice most countries have adopted pollution control strategies and measures which are based on end of pipe solutions wastewater treatment plants and adjustments to the regulations including taxes for wastewater discharges Conventional Strategy Although this approach involves very high costs on many occasions this strategy has been a complete failure The research described in this book contribute to the development of sustainable solutions for the previously outlined problem It was based on the validation of the Three Step Strategic Approach concept 3 SSA which includes 1

prevention or minimisation of waste production 2 treatment aimed at recovery and reuse of waste components and 3 disposal of remaining waste with stimulation of natural self purification of the receiving water body The study showed overall positive effects of the 3 SSA in comparison of Conventional Strategy on wastewater management in the Upper Basin 389 km of the Cauca river the second most important river in Colombia The Cost Benefit Analysis clearly favoured the 3 SSA generating a major impact on the river water quality at lower cost compared to the Conventional Strategy From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible Community Translation Erika Gonzalez, Katarzyna Stachowiak-Szymczak, Despina Amanatidou, 2023-02-03 Community translation or public service translation is on a global scale often unregulated and dependent on individual awareness good will and even charity work The social impact and mission of community translation the key role of the translator s psycho sociocultural awareness and its role depending on local and global changes in human migration and linguistic diversity make community translation a constantly evolving and yet under investigated activity and profession This book covers key practical and theoretical approaches towards community translation providing insights into the current state of the field and the latest research trends guidelines initiatives and gaps Combining knowledge in the areas of translator ethics pedagogy legal and social and health related settings this volume covers community translation in a wide range of countries and regions Community Translation Research and Practice is an essential guide both for those studying and working in this area worldwide This volume is a springboard for further studies and research in this emerging field Chapter 10 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San Jacob Cloete, 2023-11-22 The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San delves into the complex issue of problematic coloured identity and the ongoing erasure of the Khoekhoe and San people in South Africa Despite the end of apartheid this erasure continues to persist today starting as far back as 1652 There were two types of erasure that took place genocide and bureaucratic While the former is acknowledged by President Thabo Mbeki in his I Am an African speech the latter began in 1828 with Ordinance 50 in the Cape Colony From this point the Khoekhoe and San were bureaucratically erased culminating in the 1950 Population Registration Act Despite these attempts the Khoekhoe and San people resisted and fought for their identity resulting in their continued existence in the present day This book documents their painful journey highlighting their struggles against subjugation and erasure since 1652 Multilingual Youth Practices in Computer Mediated Communication Cecelia Cutler, Unn Røynealand, 2018-09-20 With an eye to the playful reflexive self conscious ways in which global youth engage with each other online this volume analyzes user generated data from these interactions to show how communication technologies and multilingual resources are deployed to project local as well as trans local orientations With examples from a range of multilingual settings each author explores how youth exploit the creative heteroglossic potential of their linguistic repertoires from rudimentary attempts to engage with others in a second language to hybrid multilingual practices. Often their linguistic orthographic and stylistic choices challenge linguistic purity and prescriptive correctness yet in other cases their utterances constitute language policing linking standardness or correctness to piety, trans local affiliation or national belonging. Written for advanced undergraduates, postgraduates and researchers in linguistics, applied linguistics, education and media and communication studies, this volume is a timely and readymade resource for researching online multilingualism with a range of methodologies and perspectives. Textbook of Global Health Anne-Emanuelle Birn, Yogan Pillay, Timothy H. Holtz, 2017-01-24

THE CRITICAL WORK IN GLOBAL HEALTH NOW COMPLETELY REVISED AND UPDATED This book compels us to better understand the contexts in which health problems emerge and the forces that underlie and propel them. Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Mpilo Tutu, H1N1, Diabetes, Ebola, Zika. Each of these health problems is rooted in a confluence of social, political, economic and biomedical factors that together inform our understanding of global health. The imperative for those who study global health is to understand these factors individually and especially synergistically. Fully revised and updated, this fourth edition of Oxford's Textbook of Global Health offers a critical examination of the array of societal factors that shape health within and across countries, including how health inequities create consequences that must be addressed by public health, international aid and social and economic policymaking.

Entangled Discourses Caroline Kerfoot, Kenneth Hylden, 2017-01-20 This book uniquely explores the shifting structures of power and unexpected points of intersection, entanglements at the nexus of North and South as a lens through which to examine the impact of global and local circuits of people, practices and ideas on linguistic, cultural and knowledge systems. The volume considers the entanglement of North and South on multiple levels in the contemporary and continuing effects of capitalism, colonialism and imperialism in the form of silenced or marginalized populations such as refugees, immigrants and other minoritized groups and in the different orders of visibility that make some types of practices and knowledge more legitimate and therefore more visible. It uses a range of methodological and analytical frames to shed light on less visible histories, practices, identities, repertoires and literacies and offer new understandings for research and for language, health care, education and other policies and practices. The book brings together an exciting mix of voices of both established and new scholars in multilingualism and diversity from a range of social, political and historical contexts and provides coverage of areas previously underrepresented in current research on multilingualism, globalization and mobility, including Brazil, South Africa, Australia, East Timor, Wallis and Futuna, Cape Verde and Guinea-Bissau. This volume is key reading for scholars, researchers and graduate students in multilingualism, globalisation, sociolinguistics, mobility and development studies, applied linguistics and language and education policy. Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International license.

Dear Comrade President André Odendaal, 2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa s Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee s work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways Academic Biliteracies David M.

Palfreyman,Christa van der Walt,2017-03-02 Research on academic literacy within higher education has focused almost exclusively on the development of academic literacy in English This book is unique in showing how students use other languages when they engage with written academic content whether in reading discussing or writing and how increasingly multilingual higher education campuses open up the possibility for students to exploit their multilingual repertoires in and around reading writing for academic purposes Chapters range from cases of informal student use of different written languages to pedagogical institutional and disciplinary strategies leveraging multilingual resources to develop biliteracy They are ordered according to two dominant themes The first includes accounts of diverse multilingual contexts where biliteracy practices emerge in response to the demands of academic reading and writing The second theme focuses on more deliberate attempts to teach biliteracy or to teach in a way that supports biliteracy The collection will be of interest to researchers higher education practitioners and students of multilingual higher education and academic literacy
