What Only The Heart Can See:

My Heart Has a Brain! It Can Think! Steven Flores Sr.,2023-06-30 The apostle Paul talks about the spiritual warfare we fight daily not weekly monthly or even yearly but every day of our lives Paul speaks about us wrestling not against flesh and blood but principalities and powers Ephesians 6 12 ESV states For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood but against the rulers against the authorities against the cosmic powers over this present darkness against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places In this book the author explores matters of the heart observing that we can't see what we are fighting against it's invisible We must connect to our hearts and draw closer to God to see better spiritually and know when a thought is from the Lord or the enemy One way to do this is through daily prayer and reading the Bible and the author highlights various Scriptures that will help you engage in spiritual warfare defeat Satan and move closer to the Lord The battle you must wage will not end until Jesus Christ comes back for you In the meantime you must put on the armor of God and follow your heart

Apatheia in the Christian Tradition Joseph H. Nguyen SJ,2018-02-21 To many modern people apatheia being without suffering without passion sounds like cold heartedness and indifference to others a condition to be avoided However in the classical world and for many in the historic Christian church it was a spiritual state to aspire to What exactly is apatheia What is its origin How has it been used in spiritual writings throughout the centuries of Christian practice And how may it help us today to articulate a Christian understanding of the soul s spiritual well being The central aim of the book is twofold to rediscover the meaning and function of the Greek term apatheia as it was understood and employed by the Stoics in their philosophical and religious writings and to explore how the theologians of the church Origen Evagrius John Cassian Maximus and Ignatius of Loyola interpreted apatheia for their spiritual practice Nguyen argues that the concept of apatheia in the Christian spiritual tradition connotes the state of spiritual peace or well being of the human soul wherein excessive and negative emotions such as lust excessive desire for food and drink anger envy resentment self love and pride are replaced by reasonable desires love and humility Man's Imitation of Life and Desire David J. Poplstein,2012-04-16 The book you are holding in your hands is Part Two of my poetry It revolves around real life events and people I know and love It is also about those I have met and friends I have found along the way Some poems are about domestic abuse Christianity and God some are about love hurt and pain romance I hope you enjoy these poems I have written and that you can relate to what I am saying through them All for the love of Poetry Best wishes David J I am including a very deep poem here It it called A Woman of Strength I need to tell you a story about a woman I know Listen closely to this story as I let it flow Alone in her room in the dark as the tears fall Thinking about her life and how she gave it her all Her mind has been so abused along with her face With the black and blue marks her swollen eyes leaving only a trace The hurt and pain from his hand leaving the scars within The tears fall from her eyes leaving her with nothing How she tries to smile but the pain gets in the way So many times Ive tried to tell her not to stay But she stayed anyway thinking everything would be fine Knowing hed be home soon as she walked that thin line Finally he came home and again she started to shake So scared as you thought how much more can you take He raised his hand to you once again as you hid with fear Wishing so hard it would all stop including the tears Once again alone in your room with your head in your hands As the blood dripped down your face right where you stand This time it went too far as you fell to the floor As you stood up looking at him face to face You told him to go to hell walking out and forever closing the door
