What Parish Are You From Book:

What Parish Are You From? Eileen M. McMahon, 2021-12-14 For Irish Americans as well as for Chicago's other ethnic groups the local parish once formed the nucleus of daily life. Focusing on the parish of St Sabina's in the southwest Chicago neighborhood of Auburn Gresham, Eileen McMahon takes a penetrating look at the response of Catholic ethnics to life in twentieth century America. She reveals the role the parish church played in achieving a cohesive and vital ethnic neighborhood and shows how ethno-religious distinctions gave way to racial differences as a central point of identity and conflict. For most of this century the parish served as an important mechanism for helping Irish Catholics cope with a dominant Protestant American culture. Anti-Catholicism in the society at large contributed to dependency on parishes and to a desire for separateness from the American mainstream. As much as Catholics may have wanted to insulate themselves in their parish communities, however, Chicago demographics and the fluid nature of the larger society made this ultimately impossible. Despite efforts at integration attempted by St Sabina's liberal clergy, white parishioners viewed black migration into their neighborhood as a threat to their way of life and resisted it even as they relocated to the suburbs. The transition from white to black neighborhoods and parishes is a major theme of twentieth century urban history. The experience of St Sabina's, which changed from a predominantly Irish parish to a vibrant African American Catholic community, provides insights into this social trend and suggests how the interplay between faith and ethnicity contributes to a resistance to change.

Fourteen And Seven Harlan Guillot, 2017-09-28 Fourteen and Seven is a fictional story of two young children who were raised by their grandparents after the tragic loss of their parents. It tells how at the age of fifteen they fell in love. They both dropped out of school and were married at sixteen years old. Al worked on a tugboat with his grandfather and on his seven days off he and his young wife Martha fished and trapped in the marshes of South Louisiana. They spent their time down the bayous at their grandfather's camps. It tells how Al came to know the Lord when he almost drowned. It tells of the wealth he acquired during his young life. How he moved up with his company and became a rich man. It tells of the lifestyle in South Louisiana from the 1920s to the present. This book is about a couple who fell hopelessly in love and how God blessed them their entire life. You won't read much tragedy in this novel. You will read about the love and life of a couple who believed in God and how He richly blessed them. It describes the waterways and bayous of South Louisiana, the Hill Country of Texas and the mountains of Colorado. It talks about Alligator hunting and fishing along with trapping. You will get caught up in a lifestyle
