The challenge of drafting purchase price adjustment clauses in merger & acquisition contracts Alexander W. Nürk, 2008-08-25 Inhaltsangabe Introduction The topic of Mergers and Acquisitions M A is currently on everyone's lips No day passes by without reading about a planned or realised M A transaction in the newspapers The last few years have been record years for the M A business The year 2007 could in fact top the record year of 2006 Although the first half of 2007 was remarkably successful the subprime crisis of the credit markets led to a slow down in the second half However M A transactions with a transaction volume of approximately 4 830 billion took place worldwide in 2007 The forecasts for 2008 expect a recession of the transaction volume of up to 25 % of the previous year Mega deals will not make the headlines as often as in 2007 because banks became more careful in granting credits for such deals due to the subprime crisis However M A International INC MAI expects that the subprime crises will have only little impact on small and medium sized M A transactions and 2008 will still be a good year for the M A business Various companies have also taken advantage of the weak U S Dollar exchange rate and plan M A deals overseas Since the wind has not yet been taken out of the M A businesses sails the challenge of performing a successful M A transaction remains Like any other businesses M A transactions are a dynamic process which has to be accounted for When a buyer purchases a company target the assets of the company cannot be held in stasis until the transaction is settled The company is in a constant flow and its value changes constantly This makes it hard to determine a precise purchase price that remains valid from the beginning until the end of the transaction process Since the value of the company changes through this process the purchase price has to be adjusted Therefore purchase price adjustment tools have to be part of the M A contract to ensure so

Generally legal counsels are assigned to draft M A contracts for the parties Although an M A team should consists not only of lawyers but also of accountants tax consultants and others where every member is specialised in a certain field the legal counsel should have a general overview since he is the one drafting the contract The quality of his drafting becomes apparent when disputes arise Most lawyers have no clue about company valuation methods or the principles of orderly accounting However these two applications are essential when it comes to drafting Arbitration in India Dushyant Dave, Martin Hunter, Fali Nariman, Marike Paulsson, 2021-02-24 India has a long-standing tradition of dispute resolution through arbitration with arbitral-type regulations going back to the eighteenth century. Today, amendments to the 1996 Indian Arbitration Act, a steady evolution of case law and new arbitral institutions position India's vibrant system once more at the forefront of international commercial dispute resolution. In this handbook, over forty members of the international arbitration community in India and beyond offer authoritative perspectives and insights into topics on arbitration that matter in India. International arbitration practitioners, Indian practitioners and scholars have combined efforts to produce a practical and informative guide on the subject. Among numerous notable features, the contributors provide detailed analysis and description of such aspects of arbitration as the following, with a focus on the Indian context: Indian application of the 1958 New York Convention; law governing the merits of the dispute and awards; investor-state dispute settlement; drafting arbitration clauses for India-centric agreements; managing costs and time; rise of virtual arbitration and technology; effect of public policy in light of extensive Indian jurisprudence; and arbitration of claims relating to environmental damage. Practical features include checklists for drafting arbitration clauses and a comparative chart of major commercial arbitration rules applicable to India. Also included is a comparative analysis of arbitral regimes in India, Singapore and England; chapters on the India Model Bilateral Investment Treaty and ISDS reforms; a special section on the enforcement of foreign awards; a section on the drafting of the award guided by leading arbitrators and stakeholders; and a review of the new 2021 ICC Rules. For foreign counsel and arbitrators with arbitrations in India, this complete and up-to-date analysis provides guidelines for practitioners, corporate counsel and judges on considerations to be borne in mind with respect to arbitration with an Indian nexus and whilst seeking enforcement and execution of an arbitral award in India. It will prove an effective tool for students and others in understanding and navigating the particularities and peculiarities of India's system of domestic and international commercial arbitration.
