What Would Jane Austen Do? Laurie Brown, 2009-05-01 When a modern woman goes back to Jane Austen's time she needs to know Everything Eleanor agrees to travel back in time to prevent a deadly duel but she doesn't know how to behave what to say and most importantly How to tell a villain from a rake The captivating infuriating and mysterious Lord Shermont is a renowned rake and womanizer but is he also a dangerous cutthroat and spy Eleanor has to get up close and personal to find out Otherwise she could fall into a most shocking scandal Thankfully Miss Jane Austen herself arrives on the scene with sage guidance and a twinkle in her eye to help Eleanor navigate countryhouse society and the dangerous terrain of her own heart From the author of Hundreds of Years to Reform a Rake a new time travel romance featuring a modern day career woman swept back in time to Regency England where she thwarts a Napoleonic spy chats with Jane Austen and falls in love with a notorious rake PRAISE FOR LAURIE BROWN Highly original If you're in the market for a different kind of historical romance or you enjoy stories filled with period detail Hundreds of Years to Reform a Rake is a solid bet wordcandybooks.blogspot.com Brown's ending was clever and I never suspected Josie would choose the path she takes I would recommend Hundreds of Years to Reform a Rake to anyone who enjoys paranormals and even Regency fans who don't usually read them Brown did an excellent job of combining the two genres aladysdiversions.blogspot.com A very enjoyable read with Josie a feisty and independent character and Deverell the ghost and Deverell the man both also very appealing curledup.com Humor mystery ghosts history and pure fun blogcritics.org A fresh tale that is as charming as it is hot zeekspage.blogspot.com You'll be transported to another time and won't want to return until the very last page is digested fantasybookspot.com

House of Commons - International Development Committee: Implications for Development in the Event of Scotland Becoming an Independent Country - HC 692 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2013-12-19 The UK's aid programme much of which is delivered from Scotland is genuinely transformational The UK provided 8.7 billion of aid in 2012-13 but it is the quality of this aid not just its quantity which sets the UK apart As part of the UK Scotland makes a tremendous contribution to all this If Scotland were to become an independent country its development agency would inevitably be a much smaller player From 2013 onwards the UK Government plans to spend 0.7% of Gross National Income on Official Development Assistance If Scotland were to become independent the UK's overall GNI and the amount of money it spends on ODA would fall Scotland has 8.3% of the UK's population share so we estimate that the UK's ODA would fall by around 8.3% or 1 billion DFID's work either its bilateral programmes or its funding to multilateral organisations would inevitably then be subject to cuts MPs are also concerned that during any transitional period the restructuring of DFID and the setup of an independent Scottish development agency would divert management attention towards restructuring and away from frontline delivery by both agencies In addition a significant proportion of DFID's workforce is based at its Scottish office in East Kilbride including a number of senior staff By contrast the number of jobs available with an independent Scottish development agency is likely to be relatively few or the new Scottish development agency would be heavily overstaffed The impact on jobs would therefore be substantial The Scotland Bill Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Scottish Affairs Committee, 2011-03-21 Additional written evidence is contained in Vol 3 available on the Committee's website at www.parliament.uk/treascom Mail Order
