Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe Shizha, Edward, 2013-12-07 The role of education in human well being and social development cannot be overestimated After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980 The book is targeted at academics scholars college and university students policy makers and other stakeholders and advocates a multi pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation reconstruction and restoration are to be achieved The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe

International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend, John MacBeath, 2011-07-10 The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning
