What Happens When Nothing Happens Greice Schneider, 2016-06-30 Boredom and melancholy in the experience of reading Contemporary graphic novels show an interesting shift from the extraordinary to the ordinary in slice of life stories in which nothing happens Present day graphic accounts are inhabited by melancholic characters whining about the lack of meaning in life This book examines this intriguing transition and brings a historical aesthetical and narratological approach to comics in which boredom is not only a topic but also awakens a deliberate affective response in the very experience of reading This volume brings together close readings of work by Lewis Trondheim Chris Ware and Adrian Tomine With a foreword by Raph el Baroni University of Lausanne

Mishnayot D. A. De Sola, Morris J. Raphall, 2024-04-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1845

Experience, Evidence, and Sense Anna Wierzbicka, 2010-06-24 This book is based on two ideas first that any language English no less than any other represents a universe of meaning shaped by the history and experience of the men and women who have created it and second that in any language certain culture specific words act as linchpins for whole networks of meanings and that penetrating the meanings of those key words can therefore open our eyes to an entire cultural universe In this book Anna Wierzbicka demonstrates that three uniquely English words evidence experience and sense are exactly such linchpins Using a rigorous plain language approach to meaning analysis she unpacks the dense cultural meanings of these key words disentangles their multiple meanings and traces their origins back to the tradition of British empiricism In so doing she reveals much about cultural attitudes embedded not only in British and American English but also English as a global language An interdisciplinary work Experience Evidence and Sense will be of interest to both scholars and students in linguistics and English as well as historians of ideas sociologists anthropologists literary scholars and scholars of communication

2101 07173 the broadcast approach in communication networks - Jun 05 2022

jan 18 2021 the broadcast approach in communication networks ali tajer avi steiner shlomo shamai shitz this paper reviews the theoretical and practical principles of the broadcast approach to communication over state dependent channels and networks in which the transmitters have access to only the probabilistic description of the time varying states

opportunistic spectrum sharing in cognitive radio networks - Dec 11 2022

this springer brief investigates spectrum sharing with limited channel feedback in various cognitive radio systems such as point to point broadcast scheduling and ad hoc networks the design aim is to optimally allocate the secondary resources to improve the throughput of secondary users while maintaining a certain quality of service for
