Empty World John Christopher,2015-05-12 Includes an excerpt from another adventure by John Christopher entitled In the beginning

In the Beginning John Christopher,2015-05-12 In the beginning many many years ago there were two tribes Dom was a boy from the hunting tribe and Va was a girl from the farming tribe The two tribes fought but that couldn't stop Dom and Va from falling in love In the midst of battle Dom escapes and takes Va with him Together they journey across the stark landscape of eons ago learning about the harsh and aggressive world around them even as they learn more about the creative and peaceful feelings within themselves In this volume compromising the novel originally titled Dom and Va and the short story adaptation In the Beginning John Christopher offers a beginning that represents the conflicting sides of human nature and the dark and light in all of us Page 4 cover Wild Jack John Christopher, 2015-05-12 Clive Anderson is falsely accused of questioning the status quo and must escape from a twenty third century retraining school Nelson English - Development Book 4 John Jackman, Wendy Wren, 1994 This is part of a six level English course foundation level to level five for pupils between five and 12 years old The course employs a twin track structure that enables teachers to underpin students language development with a rigorous skills programme There are two pupil's books at each level a skills book covering comprehension with emphasis on literal grammar punctuation vocabulary and spelling and a development book covering comprehension with emphasis on inferential the craft of quality writing forms of writing styles of writing and composition skills Each level also has a teacher's resource book which supports both tracks includes photocopiable activity sheets and correlations for all UK curricula suggests strategies for developing listening and speaking skills and helps support record keeping and assessment Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide, 1990 British Science Fiction Film and Television Tobias Hochscherf, James Leggott, Donald E. Palumbo, 2014-01-10 Written by international experts from a range of disciplines these essays examine the uniquely British contribution to science fiction film and television Viewing British SF as a cultural phenomenon that challenges straightforward definitions of genre nationhood authorship and media the editors provide a conceptual introduction placing the essays within their critical context Essay topics include Hammer science fiction films the various incarnations of Doctor Who Stanley Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange and such 21st century productions as 28 Days Later and Torchwood Contact with Extraterrestrial Intelligence and Human Law Michael Bohlander, 2023-08-07 It is statistically unlikely that humans are the only intelligent species in the universe Nothing about the others will be known until contact is made beyond a radio signal from space that merely tells us they existed when it was sent That contact may occur tomorrow in a hundred years or never If it does it will be a high risk scenario for humanity It may be peaceful or hostile Relying on alien altruism and benign intentions is wishful thinking We need to begin identifying as a planetary species and develop a global consensus on how to respond in either scenario Cold War Stories Andrew Hammond, 2017-08-28 This book is the first comprehensive study of mainstream British dystopian fiction and the Cold War Drawing on over 200 novels and collections of short stories the monograph explores the ways in which dystopian texts charted the lived experiences of the period offering an extended analysis of authors concerns about the geopolitical present and anxieties about the national future Amongst the topics addressed are the processes of Cold War autocracy militarism propaganda intelligence nuclear technologies the decline of Britain's standing in global politics and the reduced status of intellectual culture in Cold War Britain. Although the focus is on dystopianism in the work of mainstream authors including George Orwell, Doris Lessing, J. G. Ballard, Angela Carter, and Anthony Burgess, a number of science fiction novels are also discussed, making the book relevant to a wide range of researchers and students of twentieth-century British literature.
