Follow the links from one title to another to see where stories begin and continue, and the dotted lines to tales not yet told...

Long before the Warmaster's corruption, it was the Word Bearers who first listened to the whispered promises of Chaos. The Primarch Lorgar was reprimanded many times for his adoration of the Emperor as a god, something expressly forbidden by the Imperial Truth. Finally, this led to a bitter feud with the Ultramarines that smouldered for decades until, masterminded by Horus and led by Lorgar's most fervent apostles, the Word

Bearers launched a surprise attack on the muster-world of Calth.

Lorgar's story paints the rest of the war in a very different light – it was he who sought to topple the Emperor and allow Chaos to reign. As Calth burns, he enlists Angron and the World Eaters to ravage the rest of Ultramar, seeking nothing less than the creation of a new warp storm to divide the galaxy, and to elevate his frenzied brother to true daemonhood.
