The first guide to focus on Malaysian Borneo and Brunei, this book gives full details on where and how to see the island's colourful flora and fauna. Tropical rainforest and rivers cover over 70% of Malaysian Borneo, and this lush habitat is home to hundreds of unique species, from the jelly green snake and bearded pig to the proboscis monkey. Trek through one of the region's national parks or catch a glimpse of an orang utan. Traditional rural lifestyles, tribal influences, and ethnic variety also offer the visitor a rewarding cultural experience. Take part in island festivities, spend the night in a longhouse or shop in the bustling markets. Borneo can provide for adventure travellers: divers and even sunbathers. Over 27 000 UK visitors travelled to Borneo in 2007, up 10% on the previous year.

The Experience of Idling in Victorian Travel Texts, 1850-1901 Heidi Liedke, 2018-08-02 This book brings together theories of spatiality and mobility with a study of travel writing in the Victorian period to suggest that idleness is an important but neglected condition of subjectivity in that era. Contrary to familiar stereotypes of the Victorians as characterized by speed work and mechanized travel this book asserts a counter narrative in which certain writers embraced idleness in travel as a radical means to re subjectification and the assertion of a late Romantic sensibility. Attentive to the historical and literary continuities between Romantic and Victorian the book reconstructs the Victorian discourse on idleness. It draws on an interdisciplinary range of theorists and brings together a fresh selection of accounts viewed through the lens of cultural studies as well as accounts of publication history and author biography. Travel texts from different genres by writers such as Anna Mary Howitt, Jerome K. Jerome and George Gissing are brought together as representing the different facets of the spectrum of idleness in the Victorian context.
