The New Demagogues Joshua M. Roose, 2020-11-29 Chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429431197> Focused on the emergence of US President Donald Trump the United Kingdom's departure from the European Union and the recruitment of Islamic State foreign fighters from Western Muslim communities this book explores the ways in which the decay and corruption of key social institutions has created a vacuum of intellectual and moral guidance for working people and deprived them of hope and an upward social mobility long considered central to the social contract of Western liberal democracy Examining the exploitation of this vacuum of leadership and opportunity by new demagogues the author considers two important yet overlooked dimensions of this new populism the mobilization of both religion and masculinity By understanding religion as a dynamic social force that can be mobilized for purposes of social solidarity and by appreciating the sociological arguments that hyper masculinity is caused by social injury Roose considers how these key social factors have been particularly important in contributing to the emergence of the new demagogues and their followers Roose identifies the challenges that this poses for Western liberal democracy and argues that states must look beyond identity politics and exclusively rights based claims and instead consider classical conceptions of citizenship

Harahsheh, 2023-12-04 This book deconstructs ISIS s narrative in order to demonstrate how ISIS appropriates the past interprets the present and visualises the future for Arab Muslims This project depends on the rhetorical analysis by taking all speeches written and delivered by Abu Muhammad al Adnani ISIS s media spokesman from 2011 until 2016 as a case study ISIS s rhetoric shows that the group has been frozen in time and space it relies on opposite dualities in managing the affairs of life and puts the laws of God against the laws of man as a belief to establish the Caliphate To do that it borrows heavily but selectively from the Isl mic laws based on the teachings of the Qur n and Sunnah and imposes the past on the present to reach the utopia it promises to establish The analysis aims to highlight the congruences if any between the view of some people and the vision of ISIS in terms of the audience s interpretations of such extremist ideology regarding the other Shar a Caliphate and Jihad The analysis acknowledges the intricate and complex network that connects extremist ideas and ideologies with existing mainstream ideas such as the anti Shi ite sentiment The analysis demonstrates the need for developing a participatory communicative space for dialogue among people and between people and other actors be it state international organisations or civil society
