Wartime Letters Hamp And Peggy Smith:

Wartime Letters: Hamp and Peggy Smith Joan Noble, 2014-10-28 This book has been compiled in memory of the author's parents. It gives a brief introduction about the history of the family that had its roots in Yorkshire and Lancashire before emigrating to Canada on the Valiant 1817. It is a book of letters written by Joan Noble's parents to each other during their courtship 1942 and after their marriage when her father was overseas in the UK during World War II 1944-45. Hamp was a Medical Officer in the RCAF Squadron 423 stationed at Topcliffe Yorkshire from May to December 1944 at Castle Archdale Lough Erne Northern Ireland with Coastal Command at the Royal Air Force flying boat base. January-June 1945 and after V-E Day at the Canadian General Hospital in Bramshott England as a Medical Officer in the venereal diseases unit. It is not often that one has a chance to eavesdrop on their parents' courtship and early marriage. Joan's father joined the RCAF after graduating in medicine in 1941 and travelled northern Alberta as a recruiting officer and then was posted overseas. He met her mother, a student nurse, just before he graduated. Their romance was just taking off when he joined the RCAF and they carried out much of their courtship by post. In 1944, a year after they married, he was posted overseas and they wrote each other 2-3 times weekly and carefully preserved all the letters. Reading them is a vicarious participation in their early years together. They were romantic and very much in love. For their second wedding anniversary in his letter of 6 January 1945, Hamp writes: "On our second anniversary I want to take a little time to tell you again how much I think of you. We had 15 months together which were the happiest time I have ever spent and I think that they are only a tantalizing taste of what happiness is in store for us in the future. I think our parents remained in love from the time of these letters for the rest of their lives. I'm sure they had the ups and downs of every marriage but I don't remember much discord and they had great respect for one another. Reproducing their letters has been satisfying and like being given once again a chance to be with them," says Joan. All of the letters have been typed out as they were. They document Hamp and Peggy's lives from 1942-45 and give an insight into life as a medical officer in the RCAF in the last years of the war in the UK and life in a small city in Canada during the war years. The Smith Alumnae Quarterly, 1940 The American Legion Magazine American Legion, 1970 The Billboard, 1944 Cadence Bob Rusch, 1989 Who's who in America, 1950 Radio Times, 1973 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1966 The World War II Letters of Maxwell P. Smith Maxwell Paul Smith, Vaun Smith, Little Glory, Much Love Eugene T. Petersen, Marian Elizabeth Smith, 1994 A Chance for Love Marian Elizabeth Smith, 1998. In mid-February 1944, Marian Elizabeth Smith, a young Wisconsin woman, met Marine Corps Lieutenant Eugene T. Petersen on the passenger train El Capitan as it made its 42-hour run from Los Angeles to Chicago. After a brief acquaintance, he left the United States to join the Third Marine Division on Guam and eventually to take part in the battle for Iwo Jima in February and March of 1945. The collected letters of their subsequent 18-month correspondence reveal much about wartime life at home and abroad. This correspondence represents a time capsule of current events as

Smith and Petersen discuss Franklin Roosevelt the United Nations internationalism popular movies the French aviator and poet Antoine de St Exupery the comic strip Barnaby and the frustrations of dealing with sometimes less than enlightened parents The loss of Marian's brother during the bombing of Ploesti Rumania in June 1944 brought Petersen and Smith closer together and after hundreds of letters the chance for love Marian had suggested early in their correspondence evolved into a marriage that has endured for more than half a century Règlements et statuts des maîtres passementiers ... , Dear

Boys Keith Frazier Somerville, 2009-08 Throughout the war years of the 1940s there were enormous outpourings of correspondence from all parts of the United States to men and women in the service Among these were local news columns written in the form of letters to soldiers With a mission of sustaining morale as well as insuring that young Americans stationed far away were informed of local events the Dear Boys column from the Mississippi Delta is a shining example of this genre Dear Boys collects memorable columns written by Mrs Keith Frazier Somerville 1888 1978 for the newspaper of Bolivar County Mississippi Filled with illuminating insights and anecdotes these poignant letters provide a fascinating look at life in the Mississippi Delta during wartime and at what happened to local citizens scattered over the four corners of the world Keith Frazier Somerville a remarkable writer gave breadth and depth to many significant wide reaching topics in addition to reporting entertaining tidbits of local news She describes the important role played by women in the winning of the war She offers commentary upon race relations an uncommon subject in wartime America especially in the Deep South She apprises her readers of the fact of Nazi atrocities against Jews though many governmental figures shied from this subject in their public pronouncements With her clear view and her fair mind she expressed pride in the multi ethnic and multi faith composition of her local county and she hoped that a positive influence of the war would be greater personal and social equality at home Dear Helen Betty M.
