Landscape Donna Cousins, 2005-07-28 Mark folded the tarp and carried it and the locked box into the potting shed He laid the tarp on a shelf and sat on the overturned clay pot Fred had used as a stool Rubbing his eyes he stared bleakly at the old metal file that held the seeds of something too awful to imagine Nothing had prepared him for this At the peak of a high powered corporate career Mark Grant enjoys position prestige and a loving family His world is shaken when he abruptly loses the job that has been the focus of his life He starts anew as the owner of a small but profitable landscape business and just when he seems to have regained his balance discovers that the company he owns is part of a vast network that threatens not only his livelihood but the very lives of his family friends and countless other innocent victims He begins to collect evidence of illegally dumped biohazardous waste to present to the Department of Environmental Health but the risk of exposing the illicit activity intensifies when the criminals threaten his daughter's life Will Mark be able to stop an environmental disaster and at the same time save his family and his business
