Steele,Craig Huhn,2018-03-01 Over the past thirty years Holt High School in central Michigan has engaged in a quiet revolution that has transformed mathematics teaching and learning in the district From its roots as a rural high school housed in a single building in the 1980s the high school mathematics staff has grown an innovative meaningful high school mathematics curriculum that sees nearly every student in the district completing the equivalent of Precalculus Tracking was dropped in favor of an evolving suite of supports designed to promote student success in unifying rather than segregating ways Mathematics classrooms in Holt are discourse rich environments where teachers and students explore meaningful uses for mathematics as they reason and problem solve together This transformation took place and persists amidst changing professional partnerships shifting district demographics increasing accountability measures at the state and national level and turnover in teaching staff and district leadership In this book we explore the case of Holt High School through an exploration of how the mathematics curriculum has shifted over the past thirty years and the conditions and supports that have been put in place in the district to make this work fruitful and sustainable The story includes successes failures celebrations and challenges as we chronicle Holt's high school mathematics evolution Guiding questions protocols and reflective activities are provided for teachers and district leaders to begin the challenging conversations in their own district that lead to meaningful change

The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
