Williams,Alasdair Gordon-Gibson,2024-09-26 Fully revised and updated in its third edition this timely book brings together the study of conflict and war and the problems surrounding the economic development of developing societies that are most prone to experiencing problems in moving on after war The book does so by reflecting on the issues surrounding war as it unfolds and after it has in principle ended within the context of the history present day problems and future prospects The book aims to highlight the possibilities successes and failures of past and present policies that bring development to countries and peoples that want to be more involved in deciding their own futures after conflict and war and often find themselves subject to what can be seen as arbitrary and even alien ways of thinking and acting by institutions in which they theoretically have membership and agency but often do not in practice The case studies have been fully updated to reflect changes and developments since the second edition of this text and there are questions at the end of each chapter to promote reflection This new edition presents a deeper dive into the history of conflict and the emergence of new theories and policy guidance about present and future options in the fields of conflict and development Accessible and engaging this textbook is a pivotal resource for a nexus of subjects related to the often separated fields of conflict and development studies as well as practitioners in this area   New Media and the Mediatisation of Religion Gabriel Faimau,William O. Lesitaokana,2018-10-01 New media including digital and social media play a central role in producing and reproducing socio cultural and religious practices Its presence has not only resulted in changes to the ways in which religious beliefs are practiced but has also altered the way religious meanings are expressed How has new media technology informed and influenced religious engagement and participation In what ways has new media technology enabled religious groups to practice and preach their religious beliefs to a broader audience To what extent has the emergence of social media and social networking sites shaped religious discourses and religious practices This volume offers a unique Africa centred perspective in response to these questions While presenting new scholarly developments in the fields of media religion and culture in Africa this book also provides empirical and theoretical insights into the intersection between new media and religion   Seed system of Pakistan: Policy challenges and prospects Rana, Abdul Wajid,Gill, Sitara,Akram, Iqra,2022-09-26 The seed industry in Pakistan has undergone significant developments since the 1950s and has transitioned from Green Revolution to Gene Revolution The 2015 amendment in the Seed Act 1976 and the enactment of Plant Breeders Rights Act and Rules have provided long awaited intellectual property protection for proprietary seed Notwithstanding this fundamental change the challenge of effective enforcement of intellectual property rights remains This paper presents how the seed industry has evolved over the years through evaluating the regulatory and institutional framework along with looking into the major challenges that still plague the seed system of Pakistan It also explores how the private sector can be incentivized to invest in the seed sector while protecting the farmers rights Findings reveal that there seems to be a lot of scope for strengthening the seed system of Pakistan via encouraging private sector participation mainly through developing proactive markets with strong institutional mechanism along with scientific and time bound regulatory approval framework An appraisal of the international best practices divulges that technological backstopping developing public private partnerships building institutional capacity for effective enforcement of regulatory regime and availability of information to farmers for selecting quality seed are equally vital for creating a well functioning seed system in Pakistan   The Political Life of an Epidemic Simukai Chigudu,2020-01-30 Reveals how the crisis of Zimbabwe s cholera outbreak of 2008 9 had profound implications for political institutions and citizenship   Global Status Report on Road Safety 2015 World Health Organization,2015-12-17 The Global status report on road safety 2015 reflecting information from 180 countries indicates that worldwide the total number of road traffic deaths has plateaued at 1 25 million per year with the highest road traffic fatality rates in low income countries In the last three years 17 countries have aligned at least one of their laws with best practice on seat belts drink driving speed motorcycle helmets or child restraints While there has been progress towards improving road safety legislation and in making vehicles safer the report shows that the pace of change is too slow Urgent action is needed to achieve the ambitious target for road safety reflected in the newly adopted 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development halving the global number of deaths and injuries from road traffic crashes by 2020 Made possible through funding from Bloomberg Philanthropies this report is the third in the series and provides a snapshot of the road safety situation globally highlighting the gaps and the measures needed to best drive progress Publisher s description   World Development Report 2016 World Bank Group,2016-01-14 This Report aims to inspire and guide the researchers and practitioners who can help advance a new set of development approaches based on a fuller consideration of psychological and social influences p 2   The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi ,Trésor Muhindo Makunya,2023-08-28 The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists   Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation

Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira,Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa,2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic
