Zimsec Shona Set S November 2015 June 2016:

Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa's development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees Yasmeen Abu-Laban, Michael Frishkopf, Reza Hasmath, Anna Kirova, 2024-05-28 Refugees face distinct challenges and are often subject to dehumanization by politicians media and the public In this context Resisting the Dehumanization of Refugees provides urgent insights and policy relevant perspectives to improve refugees social well being and integration Taking a transdisciplinary approach scholars from the social sciences arts and humanities alongside practitioners and refugees explore what it means to experience dehumanization They consider how refugees experiences of dehumanization inform both epistemological and practical approaches to humanizing or re humanizing refugees before during and after resettlement By addressing these important issues contributors marshal rich and multidimensional responses that draw upon our shared humanity and reveal new possibilities for change

Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani, Joseph Ola, Isaiah Ola Abolarin, Benjamin Isola Akano, Justice A. Arthur, Victoria Oyenike Ayano, Paul Ayokunle, Kwaku Boamah, Akarama Dan Jr, Edmore Dube, Eric Manu, Françoise Niyonsaba, Godfred Nsiah, Moses Iliya Ogidis, Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi, Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community

Routledge Handbook of African Media and Communication Studies Winston Mano,viola c. milton,2021-02-12 This handbook comprises fresh and incisive research focusing on African media culture and communication The chapters from a cross section of scholars dissect the forces shaping the field within a changing African context It adds critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first The book goes beyond critiques of the marginality of African approaches in media and communication studies to offer scholars the theoretical and empirical toolkit needed to start building critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first Decoloniality demands new epistemological interventions in African media culture and communication and this book is an important interlocutor in this space In a globally interconnected world changing patterns of authority and power pose new challenges to the ways in which media institutions are constituted and managed as well as how communication and media policy is negotiated and the manner in which citizens engage with increasing media opportunities The handbook focuses on the interrelationships of the local and the global and the concomitant consequences for media practice education and citizen engagement in today s Africa Altogether the book foregrounds convivial epistemologies relevant for locating African media and communication in the pluriverse This handbook is an essential read for critical media communications cultural studies and journalism scholars

The Political Uses of Literature Benjamin Kohlmann,Ivana Perica,2024-01-11 Drawing on a global history of politicized writing this book explores literature s utility as a mode of activism and aesthetic engagement with the political challenges of the current moment The question of literature s uses has recently become a key topic of academic and public debate Paradoxically however these conversations often tend to bypass the rich history of engagements with literature s distinctly political uses that form such a powerful current of 20th and 21st century artistic production and critical theoretical reflection The Political Uses of Literature reopens discussion of literature s political and activist genealogies along several interrelated lines As a foundational moment it draws attention to the important body of interwar politicized literature and to debates about literature s ability to intervene in social reality It then traces the mobilization of related conversations and artistic practices across several historical conjunctures most notably the committed literature of the 1960s and our own present In mapping out these geographically and artistically diverse traditions including case studies from the Americas Europe Africa India and Russia contributors advance critical discussions in the field making questions pertaining to politicized art newly compelling to a broader and more diverse readership Most importantly this volume insists on the need to think about literature's political uses today at a time when it has become increasingly difficult to imagine any kind of political efficacy for art even as the need to do so is growing more and more acute Literature may not proffer easy answers to our political problems but as this collection suggests the writing of the 20th century holds out aesthetic resources for a renewed engagement with the dilemmas that face us now

Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems Masenya, Tlou Maggie, 2023-08-03 Indigenous knowledge is regarded as undocumented cultural local traditional and community knowledge produced and owned by local people in their specific communities It is mainly preserved in the memories of elders and shared or passed on from generation to generation through oral communication traditional practices and demonstrations This irreplaceable resource may be lost forever as a direct result of the pressures of modernization colonization and globalization Concern over the loss of Indigenous knowledge has thus raised a need for the preservation and documentation of this knowledge in digital formats Digital Preservation and Documentation of Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems determines how Indigenous knowledge can be documented and digitally preserved to benefit Indigenous knowledge owners and their communities and be accessible for future generations The book provides the best practices innovative strategies theoretical and conceptual frameworks and empirical research findings regarding the digital preservation and documentation of Indigenous knowledge systems worldwide Covering topics such as digital media platforms educational management and knowledge systems this premier reference source is a valuable and useful tool for students information professionals knowledge managers records managers Indigenous knowledge owners Indigenous community leaders librarians archivists computer scientists information technology specialists students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians
