Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani, Joseph Ola, Isaiah Ola Abolarin, Benjamin Isola Akano, Justice A. Arthur, Victoria Oyenike Ayano, Paul Ayokunle, Kwaku Boamah, Akarama Dan Jr, Edmore Dube, Eric Manu, Françoise Niyonsaba, Godfred Nsiah, Moses Iliya Ogidis, Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi, Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book

demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community African Values, Ethics, and Technology Beatrice Dedaa Okyere-Manu, 2021-04-30 This book charts technological developments from an African ethical perspective It explores the idea that while certain technologies have benefited Africans the fact that these technologies were designed and produced in and for a different setting leads to conflicts with African ethical values Written in a simple and engaging style the authors apply an African ethical lens to themes such as The Fourth Industrial Revolution the moral status of technology technology and sexual The Political Uses of Literature Benjamin Kohlmann, Ivana Perica, 2024-01-11 relations and bioethics and technology Drawing on a global history of politicized writing this book explores literature s utility as a mode of activism and aesthetic engagement with the political challenges of the current moment The question of literature s uses has recently become a key topic of academic and public debate Paradoxically however these conversations often tend to bypass the rich history of engagements with literature s distinctly political uses that form such a powerful current of 20th and 21st century artistic production and critical theoretical reflection The Political Uses of Literature reopens discussion of literature s political and activist genealogies along several interrelated lines As a foundational moment it draws attention to the important body of interwar politicized literature and to debates about literature s ability to intervene in social reality It then traces the mobilization of related conversations and artistic practices across several historical conjunctures most notably the committed literature of the 1960s and our own present In mapping out these geographically and artistically diverse traditions including case studies from the Americas Europe Africa India and Russia contributors advance critical discussions in the field making questions pertaining to politicized art newly compelling to a broader and more diverse readership Most importantly this volume insists on the need to think about literature s political uses today at a time when it has become increasingly difficult to imagine any kind of political efficacy for art even as the need to do so is growing more and more acute Literature may not proffer easy answers to our political problems but as this collection suggests the writing of the 20th century holds out aesthetic resources for a renewed engagement with the dilemmas that face us now International Handbook for Policy Research on School-Based Counseling John C.
