Macroeconomics R. Glenn Hubbard,Anne M. Garnett,Philip Lewis,Anthony Patrick O'Brien,2014-09-01 Macroeconomics is the most engaging introductory economics resource available to students today Using real businesses examples to show how managers use economics to make real decisions every day the subject is made relevant and meaningful Each chapter of the text opens with a case study featuring a real business or real business situation refers to the study throughout the chapter and concludes with An Inside Look a news article format which illustrates how a key principle covered in the chapter relates to real business situations or was used by a real company to make a real business decision Solved problems in every chapter motivate learners to confidently connect with the theory to solve economic problems and analyse current economic events The Wisden Book of Test Cricket 2014-2019, 2020-05-14 The Wisden Book of Test Cricket first published in 1979 is well established as an invaluable and unique source of reference essential to any cricket library This new volume includes full coverage of every Test match from late 2014 to the end of the 2019 season in England Each Test match features Wisden s own scorecard a detailed match report details of debutants close of play scores umpires and referees with number of appearances and Man of the Match winners Also included is a complete individual Test Career Records section and player index Edited by Steven Lynch this new volume brings collectors libraries up to date ensuring they have a complete and accurate record essential for any truly self respecting cricket enthusiast Integral Green Zimbabwe Elizabeth Mamukwa, Ronnie Lessem, Alexander Schieffer, 2016-05-23 Integral Green Zimbabwe An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series a series which has three overarching aims The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time one philosophical the other practical The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age while the practical is the green movement duly aligned with that of sustainable development The second is to blend together elements of nature and community culture and spirituality science and technology politics and economics thus serving to bring about an integral green vision albeit with a focus on business and economics As such the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements Thirdly this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe as well as Southern Africa drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents The emphasis on Zimbabwe and Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors Lessem and Mamukwa are Zimbabwean in origin but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew The War Report Stuart Casey-Maslen, 2014 This work identifies describes and discusses all situations of armed violence in 2013 that amounted to armed conflicts in accordance with the definitions recognized under international humanitarian law IHL and international criminal law ICL The household and individual-level economic impacts of cash transfer programmes in sub-Saharan Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-10-16 Using qualitative research and econometric analysis this report analyses how unconditional cash transfer programmes impact crop production agricultural inputs labour allocation risk management and social networks in seven sub Saharan countries Corporate Governance in Zimbabwe's Public Entities Nomsa Jane Moyo, 2022-01-31 This study focuses on the corporate governance initiatives laws and regulations aimed at enhancing the effectiveness of boards of public entities in Zimbabwe The key question addressed is whether or not the corporate governance initiatives and legal and regulatory reforms in Zimbabwe are sufficient to enable boards of public entities to effectively discharge their duties and meet internationally accepted corporate governance standards A comparative analysis of Zimbabwe s public entities corporate governance framework to that of South Africa a developing country like Zimbabwe and Australia a developed country with similar common law heritage is also conducted Recommendations are made on how best to enhance the effectiveness of boards of public entities in order to promote good corporate governance practices in Zimbabwean public entities Towards Democratic Development States in Southern Africa Godfrey Kanyenze, Herbert Jauch, 2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neo liberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development Build Mark Katz, 2020 Build The Power of Hip Hop Diplomacy in a Divided World explores the inescapable tensions and ambiguities in the relationship between art and the state revealing the ethical complexities that lurk behind what might seem mere goodwill diplomatic tours Author Mark Katz makes the case that hip hop can be a valuable positive and effective means to promote meaningful and productive international relations between people and nations Higher Education, Youth and Migration in Contexts of Disadvantage Faith Mkwanzani, 2018-11-30 This book explores the lives experiences and the formation of higher educational aspirations among marginalised migrant youth in South Africa Using a case study based in Johannesburg the author illuminates their voices in order to demonstrate the reality faced by these young people in the context of migration to the Global South Within the complex landscape of global and African migration this book draws on detailed narratives to understand the conditions under which aspirations for higher education are or are not developed In doing so the author highlights the value of understanding individual lives experiences and opportunities from a human development point of view capturing the multidimensional disadvantages experienced by migrants in a balanced intersectional manner Balancing empirical data with theoretical analysis this volume tells a rich nuanced story about marginalised migrant youth an essential work for understanding the conditions necessary for such youth to live valuable lives in both local and international contexts This book will appeal to students and scholars of youth migration aspiration and educational opportunities particularly within the Global South A thriving agricultural sector in a changing climate De Pinto, Alessandro, Ulimwengu, John M., 2017-10-25 Given its heavy reliance on rainfed agriculture and projected climatic and weather changes SSA faces multidimensional challenges in ensuring food and nutrition security as well as preserving its ecosystems In this regard climate smart agriculture CSA can play an important role in addressing the interlinked challenges of food security and climate change CSA practices aim to achieve three closely related objectives sustainably increase agricultural productivity adapt to climate change and mitigate greenhouse gas GHG emissions The CSA objectives directly contribute to achieving the 2014 Malabo Declaration goals which include commitments to 1 end hunger in Africa by 2025 2 halve poverty by 2025 through inclusive agricultural growth and transformation and 3 enhance the resilience of livelihoods and production systems to climate variability and other related risks These linkages underscore the importance of including CSA in country and regional plans to achieve overarching development objectives in Africa in particular food security and poverty reduction The 2016 Annual Trends and Outlook Report ATOR examines the contribution of CSA to meeting Malabo Declaration goals by taking stock of current knowledge on the effects of climate change reviewing existing evidence of the effectiveness of various CSA strategies and discussing examples of CSA based practices and tools for developing evidence based policies and programs China in Africa Suisheng Zhao, 2017-10-02 China's expansion and growing influence in Africa is arguably the most remarkable global political and economic development in the 21st century China's foray into Africa started in the late 1990s propelled by its desire to obtain new sources of raw materials and energy for its economic growth as well as new markets for its manufactured goods While China's no political strings attached policy proves attractive to many of African leaders China has been criticized as neo colonialist interested solely in stripping Africa of its mineral wealth without proper environmental or social precautions This book addresses the controversy by exploring the motivations and practices of China's African engagement providing a comprehensive account of the intensified interactions between China and African states The first part examines the debate surrounding whether China has pursued a neo colonialist path in Africa by looking at the perception of China by the locals and the challenges that the intensified relationship has posed for African states The second part analyses China's strategic motivations to see if Beijing has acquired sustaining power and influence in Africa in competition with the West The third part focuses on economic and business practices of Chinese companies in Africa as well as China Africa trade patterns The articles in this book were originally published in special issues of the Journal of Contemporary China Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2016: Office of the Secretary; Natural Resources Conservation Service; Marketing and regulatory programs; Food and Drug Administration United States.
