Football, Gambling, and Everyday Life in Zimbabwe Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2023-10-27 As unemployment soared in Zimbabwe in the early twenty first century betting on football soccer emerged as a popular if unsustainable livelihood option and the number of betting halls mushroomed This book investigates this growing social phenomenon providing a holistic analysis of football gambling in Zimbabwe and exposing its impact on the everyday lives of Zimbabweans Drawing on original empirical and theoretical analysis from across six different areas of Zimbabwe the book highlights the lived experiences of communities that are only beginning to grapple with the long term effects of addiction Explaining its historical origins in the colonial and immediate post colonial periods the authors delve into the motivations patterns practices and impacts of soccer betting Tackling issues such as gender livelihoods addiction religion and tradition related to soccer betting the book lays bare the general lack of policy frameworks and support services to protect vulnerable populations This book offers a rare glimpse into a sociological phenomenon sweeping across Zimbabwe with a particularly stark impact on the country s youth It will interest sports and African studies researchers as well as those focusing on the socio health problems related to gambling

Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa s population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author s longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King s College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe University of Cape Town Press PB

Multiparty Democracy in Zimbabwe Aaron Rwodzi, 2024-03-26 This book provides a comprehensive account of the tumultuous political landscape of Zimbabwe Delving into historical and contemporary perspectives the author analyses the relationship between the ruling ZANU PF party and the opposition exposing the pervasive influence of foreign powers and their regime change agendas Amidst western imposed economic sanctions the book examines how political opposition has struggled to maintain its footing in the face of ZANU PF s rhetoric on preserving the nation s sovereignty Drawing on the powerful theoretical frameworks of Gramsci s hegemony theory and instrumentalism the book dissects the constraints on multiparty democracy under ZANU PF s rule From the party s manipulation of liberation narratives to the subtle intricacies of Mugabeism a violent and ideological stronghold the author unveils the tactics employed to maintain power The chapters uncover the pivotal role played by the military throughout Zimbabwe s history from the days of the liberation struggle to the shocking events of 2017 when Mugabe s grip on power was diminished by the very force that had propped him up for decades the author reveals how the military s involvement has thwarted opposition players attempts to claim power Boldly challenging the notion that constraints solely rest on ZANU PF this book calls attention to the shortcomings of opposition parties in navigating Zimbabwe s treacherous political landscape Using compelling evidence and unparalleled analysis the book is an essential read for those seeking to understand the intricate web of power manipulation and struggle that has defined Zimbabwe s political journey

Post-colonial struggles for a democratic Southern Africa Carolyn Bassett, Marlea Clarke, 2017-06-26 National liberation one of the grand narratives of the twentieth century has left a weighty legacy of unfulfilled dreams This book explores the ongoing struggle for legitimate accountable political leaders in postcolonial Southern Africa focussing on dilemmas arising when ex liberation movements form the governments While the spread of multi party democracy to most countries in the region is to be celebrated democratic practice often has been superficial a limited elitist politics that relies on the symbols of the liberation struggle to legitimate de facto one party rule and authoritarian practices Using country cases from Tanzania Swaziland Zimbabwe South Africa and Zambia the collection explores three subthemes relevant to postcolonial governance in Southern Africa how the struggle for liberation shapes the character of political transformation the nature of rule in one party dominant states headed by former liberation movements and the processes of governance and resistance in post liberation contexts This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies

The History and Future of Warfare: Selections from the Professional Readings in Military Strategy Published by the Strategic Studies Institute of the U. S. Army War College Harry Almond, James A. Burger, 1999-12-23 The History and Future of Warfare Selections of the Professional Readings in Military Strategy Published by the Strategic Studies Institute of the U S Army War College Legal standards are an important part of military strategic decision making both as to whether or not to take military action and how military action should be conducted once the decision is made Insight into the practical and economic application of these standards is at the core of this thought provoking book Edited with extensive legal commentary and analysis by two prominent US military lawyers with global experience The History and Future of Warfare presents a revealing survey of the most significant findings over a 30 year period of outstanding military advisers and scholars on the use control and conduct of military forces in hostilities Drawing on the work of the Strategic Studies Institute of the US Army War College work which has deeply influenced military thinking and doctrine not only in the US but worldwide this book distills the considered judgment of a generation of commentators on the operational controls that have evolved since the 1960s and been tested and refined in conflicts from Vietnam to Kosova Collecting 31 essays in ten chapters with introductory comments to each chapter the book addresses such specific issues and practical problems as the role of NATO and its enlargement justifications of the recourse to war especially the Weinberger Doctrine setting legal controls on new weapons and new military technologies and the doctrine of peacekeeping and its strategic promise There are also essays dealing with particular geographical and regional military issues that arise in Russia China Latin America Africa and the Middle East as well as studies of the changing role of the United Nations and the US in the New World Order The History and Future of Warfare allows international lawyers defense policymakers and other interested parties to consider in depth serious problems involving the use of military force Through its clear thinking about legal standards both existing such as the Geneva Protocols of December 1977 and proposed it helps these professionals to resolve issues of improper or unlawful conduct in regard to the use of military force

Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace

- 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa
- 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable
- 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it

Transitional Justice in Africa Ruth Murambadoro, 2020-06-25 This book provides insight on the effect of political violence and transitional justice in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe and comparing it to Rwanda Uganda and Mozambique The case of Zimbabwe is unique since political violence observed in some areas has manifested as contestations for power between members of various political parties These political contestations have infiltrated family clan structures at the community level and destroyed the human and social relations of people Also the author examines an understanding of how communities in the most polarized and conflict ridden areas in Africa are addressing their past The project would appeal to graduate students academics researchers and practitioners as it will help them to understand African justice systems and the complex network of relationships shaping justice processes during transitions The Extinction Market Vanda Felbab Brown,2017-11-15 Emphasizes the disturbing consequences poaching and trafficking pose globally in terms of both biodiversity and public health Globalization and Self-Regulation S. Sethi,2016-02-17 Corporate strategy expert Prakash Sethi takes an in depth look at global structures and how regulation works from a corporate perspective providing case studies of several industries and governments who have begun implementing voluntary codes of conducts including Equator Principles ICM and The Kimberly Process Keeping the Republic Christine Barbour,Gerald C. Armies and Democracy in the New Africa Kent Hughes Butts, 1996 In October 1994 the Strategic Studies Institute sponsored a roundtable on democratization in Sub Saharan Africa Particular attention was paid to the role the U S military and Department of Defense played in democracy support This study developed from a paper presented at the roundtable Dr Butts and Dr Metz reject the notion that the political culture of African states allows or even encourages military intervention in politics Drawing on case studies from Nigeria and South Africa they contend that if the fragile democracies in Sub Saharan Africa are to be sustained African militaries must be extricated from politics and take decisive steps toward the type of military professionalism seen in stable democracies around the world U S national interests in Sub Saharan Africa are so limited that the region will receive only a very small proportion of the human political military and economic resources devoted to American national security strategy This makes efficiency imperative Dr Butts and Dr Metz argue that if U S strategic resources are used wisely in Africa they can have the desired effect In particular the U S military can play an important part in helping African militaries professionalize They close with concrete proposals through which the U S Department of Defense and the Army could more effectively support African democratization

Gender and Agrarian Reforms Susie Jacobs, 2013-05-13 The redistribution of land has profound implications for women and for gender relations however gender issues have been marginalised from both theoretical and policy discussions of agrarian reform This book presents an overview of gender and agrarian reform experiences globally Jacobs highlights case studies from Latin America Asia Africa and eastern Europe and also compares agrarian and land reforms organised along collective lines as well as along individual household lines This volume will be of interest to scholars in Geography Women's Studies and Economics

From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell, Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor, 2019-04-22 Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes

together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy
