Short Stories Canada:

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood, Mavis Gallant, Alice Munro, Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it, surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well-known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M. Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany. Canadian Short Stories Donna Bennett, Russell Brown, 2005 Canadian Short Stories is an exciting collection of both old and new. The 39 stories place the historic writers of the short story in Canada alongside both established living writers and new practitioners of the form. Penguin Book of Canadian Short Stories Jane Urquhart, 2008-09-30 National Bestseller Internationally acclaimed writer Jane Urquhart has thoughtfully selected over sixty extraordinary short stories to create this majestic anthology of literary treasures. Spanning more than a century of rich, diverse prose, this collection features Canada's literary greats as well as its emerging voices ranging from early twentieth-century luminaries right up to the present day. This stunning volume of outstanding stories is quite possibly the best collection of its kind. Includes stories from Margaret Atwood, Dionne Brand, Michael Crummey, Timothy Findley, Mavis Gallant, Sheila Heti, Thomas King, Annabel Lyon, Lucy Maud Montgomery, Anita Rau Badami, Gabrielle Roy, Carol Shields, Madeleine Thien, M. G. Vassanji and many more. Open Country Robert Lecker, 2008 Open Country Canadian Literature in English Canadian Short Fiction is a contemporary showcase of the country's writing. The collection includes extensive annotations that offer new interpretive possibilities for the study and appreciation of Canadian literature. Editor Robert Lecker provides an unparalleled view of Canada's literary evolution. This volume brings together short fiction by 48 authors who gained prominence between 1836 and the present with an emphasis on contemporary writers and a focus on identity, race, gender and sexuality. Organized chronologically, the works of each author are introduced by a detailed biographical critical essay that provides background information about the influences and ideas shaping the selected works as well as the author's career. Open Country Canadian Literature in English Canadian Short Fiction combines recognized works in the Canadian canon with innovative challenges to the tradition, creating a dynamic balance between the established and the new.

The Oxford Book of Canadian Short Stories in English Margaret Atwood, Robert Weaver, 1986 Arranged chronologically with forty stories in all the book provides an excellent survey of Canada's leading writers including a story by Atwood herself The Sin Eater as well as stories by Morley Callaghan Last Spring They Came Over Mordecai Richler The Summer My Grandmother Was Supposed to Die and Stephen Leacock The Marine Excursion of the Knights of Pythias The book features biographical notes and an index of authors
