I was counting down the seconds as I watched the clock. I didn't even hear what the teacher was saying. All I knew was I was ready to leave. It was Friday. I heard some chatter in the background, but I didn't listen. All I could think about was how good the food would be that night. I would order a thick juicy hamburger and some fries with extra ketchup. All of the waiters loved me at Jake's Hamburger. Stop. My parents had promised to take me there. Finally, the bell rang. I jumped up and ran to my locker. A lot of papers flew out. I just stuffed them back in, grabbed my things, and ran down the hallway. "Sarah," I heard my teacher call, "Don't forget about," as I ran out of the door. On Monday, I was back at school. "Oh, no, we are having a test," I thought. How could I have known? The teacher handed out the tests. I didn't know any of the answers to the multiplication or division problems.

1. Where was I when I was watching the clock?

2. Where were my parents taking me that night?

3. What was Sarah's teacher probably trying to tell her?

4. Do you think Sarah did well on the test? Why or why not?

5. What class was Sarah probably in when she was watching the clock?

Disciplinary Literacy and Explicit Vocabulary Teaching: A whole school approach to closing the attainment gap Kathrine

Mortimore, 2020-12-15 Firmly rooted in research evidence of what works within the classroom for our most disadvantaged students, Disciplinary Literacy and Explicit Vocabulary Teaching offers teachers and school leaders practical ways in which those students who are behind in their literacy capabilities can make excellent progress. Building on the work of Geoff Barton in his influential book Don't Call it Literacy, Kathrine Mortimore outlines the unique literacy challenges posed by specific subject areas for those with weaker literacy skills and more importantly how these challenges can be addressed and overcome. A student's GCSE results are vital in giving them the choices they deserve in order to go on to the next stage of their academic careers. This book draws on the success stories of schools and subjects that have made significant improvements in the outcomes of the children they teach, regardless of their starting points. From the inevitable success of Michaela Community School to the gains made by the English department at Torquay Academy and the rapid reading improvements at Henley Bank, this book draws on both whole-school initiatives and subject-specific strategies which have had proven success. This book places a wide and balanced knowledge-rich curriculum at the centre of any school improvement strategy designed to improve literacy and illustrates the role that all subjects must combine to play in building the vital background knowledge and vocabulary that young people need in order to read independently. This curriculum must then be delivered using those teaching methods that have had the greatest impact on disadvantaged learners, and this book sets out how the methodology of direct and explicit instruction can be adopted within each subject area. Alongside this is a useful summary of staff development and inset which offers practical ways in which teachers adoption of these effective strategies can be facilitated There are also useful sections on creating a whole school dictionary of essential vocabulary creating a culture of reading and writing and also those key literacy barriers experienced by those students with some of the most common special educational needs Where the Wild Things Are - Literature Kit Gr. 1-2 Marie-Helen Goyetche,2007-01-01 Escape to a land of Wild Things to discover that being with people who love you best is more important than misbehaving Get into Max s mindset and decide whether he regrets being a Wild Thing Match the beginning of a word with its ending Transform words from the story in their past tense to their present tense Complete statements about the story by adding the word before or after to make them true Students describe a time when they made mischief just like Max and what the consequences were Create a Wild Things menu complete with meal vegetables drink and dessert Students compare themselves with Max to see what things they have in common in a Venn Diagram Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom s Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel This story is based on a mischievous boy named Max who dresses up in a wolf suit and does things he shouldn t His mom gets upset and calls him a Wild Thing Max retaliates by screaming back to his mom I ll eat you up From within his imagination Max s room goes from forest to ocean with Max inside the little boat where he comes up to the land of Wild Things Max becomes lonely and he smells good things to eat Wanting to be with someone who loved him best of all he leaves the land of Wild Things He comes back to his own room where he finds his supper still hot waiting for him Supporting Readers in Secondary Schools Wendy Jolliffe,David Waugh,Jayne Stead,Sue Beverton,2014-05-12 Are you a secondary school teacher who needs to know about phonics and teaching reading Then this book is for you There are lots of books on teaching phonics but most are written to support primary teachers This book is written specifically for secondary teachers working with children who need support with reading The text uses case studies from secondary schools to highlight effective ways to support children with reading and includes useful tips on teaching strategies and ideas for resources The text covers the subject knowledge you need for the teaching of reading in the broadest sense including phonics Intended to support you as a secondary teacher it gives guidance on planning methods of assessment and explores a range of intervention programmes and resources This text is your comprehensive support resource in teaching reading The One in the Middle Is the Green Kangaroo - Literature Kit Gr. 1-2 Lisa Renaud,2017-05-31 Find out what it s like to be the middle child and what it means to be able to stand out and feel special Students gain a deeper understanding of their own mind to visualize what makes them unique Sort words from the story as short a or long a vowels Complete quotes from the story with their missing quotation marks Recognize whether Freddy practiced for his part before or after he showed how well he could jump Students draw their own interpretation of Freddy s costume for the play and explain how it fits and some of its important details Brainstorm things that would make a good play and things that would make a bad play Students compare
