Aspirational Chinese in Competitive Social Repositionings Jia Gao,2023-08-08 In the past four or so decades a significant amount of research efforts has been made to examine the rapid and constant social changes in China However most of the literature has focused on either macro or micro level issues and what has not been adequately analysed is how the majority of ordinary people has reacted to and influenced the changes This inadequacy has affected our understanding of Chinese society its dynamics and the changing trends Drawing upon a new perspective of competitive social repositioning and the evidence recorded in numerous recent publications and interview data this book seeks to re examine the ever changing but under researched societal dynamics driving social transformations in China from

1964 when the communist heir narrative was rebranded and utilised to 2000 when Jiang Zemin formulated the Three Represents theory to modify the ideological political thinking of China's ruling elites This analysis focuses on how a high proportion of aspirational citizens have kept repositioning themselves in China's changing distributions of social resources and social structure how their attitudes and behaviours have been shaped over time what characteristics of their choices are at different stages and how their preferences have resulted in the zig zag patterns of China's recent social change

Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences,1982-02-01 Biographic Memoirs Volume 53 contains the biographies of deceased members of the National Academy of Sciences and bibliographies of their published works Each biographical essay was written by a member of the Academy familiar with the professional career of the deceased For historical and bibliographical purposes these volumes are worth returning to time and again A Pedagogist's Memoir

Grant Rodwell,2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia's G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool

Worth Writing About Jake Wizner,2023-10-10 Who am I This is the question that many adolescents ask during the turbulent middle and high school years In Worth Writing About Exploring Memoir with Adolescents Jake Wizner addresses how searching for the answer to this question leads his students to reflection to reading and ultimately to deeper more meaningful writing Wizner a 20 year teaching veteran believes that a well designed memoir unit not only aligns with the Common Core State Standards but also forges community in the classroom encourages kids to read nonfiction and works wonders with students who struggle with their writing or with their lives Worth Writing About addresses the most common challenges teachers face when teaching memoir writing How do you help students who say that nothing interesting has happened in their lives How do you help students balance what is meaningful with what is too personal to share How do you help students overcome the I don't remember syndrome Wizner delves into the craft of writing from using mentor texts to crafting leads and memorable endings He uses student models from his own classroom to show the deep important work his students produce during the memoir unit By writing about themselves and how they view the world around them students discover more about themselves and how they want to move forward in the future Writing Life Stories Bill
