Wüstenberg,Aline Sierp,2020-07-01 The dynamics of transnational memory play a central role in modern politics from postsocialist efforts at transitional justice to the global legacies of colonialism Yet the relatively young subfield of transnational memory studies remains underdeveloped and fractured across numerous disciplines even as nascent boundary crossing theories on topics such as multi vocal traveling or entangled remembrance suggest new ways of negotiating difficult political questions This volume brings together theoretical and practical considerations to provide transnational memory scholars with an interdisciplinary investigation into agency the who and the how of cross border commemoration that motivates activists and fascinates observers Modern Memory Keeper Ronee Parsons,2008-05-23 Every family deserves to have a Modern Memory Keeper Long gone are the days of accenting precious heritage photos with bland papers and embellishments It s time to shake things up by honoring your family s life and times with a colorful new energy In Modern Memory Keeper you ll learn to create modern heritage keepsakes that celebrate the generations who have shaped your life as well as family memories in the making Inside you ll discover Unique ideas for showcasing and preserving vintage family photos memorabilia and ephemera Innovative ways to gather stories from your family s history and convey them in your pages Helpful tips and tricks for making the most of your digital tools to scan and restore damaged photos Sixteen creative step by step techniques for taking your scrapbook projects to the next level Let Modern Memory Keeper be your inspiration for creating a visual memoir that will breathe new life and color into your family s richly unique history

Cultures of Memory in Football Fanzines. A Content Analysis. Christoph Wagner,2013-02-28 Master s Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject Sport Sport Sociology grade B University of Leicester Institute for Sociology course MA course for Sociology of Sports language English abstract Abstract The increasing insecurity in English society is countered by a resurgence of nostalgia and remembering the old times This phenomenon can be found in football too but it differs from the need for nostalgia that is visible in society High Street shops like Past Times are hugely successful in selling commodities that remember the English Commonwealth with goods from the countries that once belonged to it Also this becomes visible by the many replica items of daily life that are designed in a retro style but contain modern technology such as radios watches alarm clocks and furniture Football fans can purchase replica shirts of their favourite club from the seventies and even earlier In the field of football the introduction of the Premier League in England has ultimately changed the face of football Football was commodified and has become the most successful part of the entertainment industry In the wake of the Heysel and Hillsborough disasters football fans got active themselves and started to publish football fanzines as a reaction to the general condemnation they had to endure In these outlets they mostly opposed the view that every football fan is a hooligan They also used football fanzines as a platform to remember their heroes and glories of eras long gone For this reason cultures of memory did become a part of football fanzines and did so very vividly

Food in Memory and Imagination Beth Forrest,Greg de St. Maurice,2022-01-13 How do we engage with food through memory and imagination This expansive volume spans time and space to illustrate how through food people have engaged with the past the future and their alternative presents Beth M Forrest and Greg de St Maurice have brought together first class contributions from both established and up and coming scholars to consider how imagination and memory intertwine and sometimes diverge Chapters draw on cases around the world including Iran Italy Japan Kenya and the US and include topics such as national identity food insecurity and the phenomenon of knowledge Contributions represent a range of disciplines including anthropology history philosophy psychology and sociology This volume is a veritable feast for the contemporary food studies scholar

Memory and Intermediality in Artists' Moving Image Sarah Durcan, 2020-10-19 This book addresses the preoccupation with memory in contemporary artists moving image installations It situates artists moving image in relation to the transformations of digitalization as hybrid intermedial combinations of analogue film video and digital video emerge from mid 1990s onwards While film has always been closely associated with the process of memory this book investigates new models of memory in artists remediation of film with video and other intermedial aesthetics Beginning with a chapter on the theorization of memory and the moving image and the diverse genealogies of artists film and video the following chapters identify five different mnemonic modes in artists moving image critical nostalgia database narrative the echo chamber documentary fiction and mediatized memories Stan Douglas Steve McQueen Runa Islam Mark Leckey and Elizabeth Price are of a generation that has lived through the transition from analogue to digital Their emphasis on the nuances of intermediality indicates the extent to which we remember through media
