What Is Cool?

No one can truly understand the sensation of jumping directly onto a turtle, but this is just one of many characteristics bestowed upon the main character in the book Super Plumber Guy. The book depicts a brightly lit world of wonder, fungi, and amphibians in varying biomes. While the main character, Mr. Plumber, is depicted as an everyman, his distinct look, style, and behaviors as described in the book show that he is anything but.

Mr. Plumber was originally written as something of an everyday character that the reader could embody. He has no true personality, nor does he have a voice, often allowing secondary characters around him to fill in the gaps. The reader does know that he wears a brightly colored hat, jumps high, and enjoys mushrooms. These are humble characteristics that bring out the humanity of the character. Most people are not a list of unique characteristics but a mosaic of smaller idiosyncrasies.

Super Plumber Guy remains a popular read containing a human character that many might consider boring or free of personality. However, Mr. Plumber is an exceedingly human character who acts as a blank slate for the reader. Diving deeper into other characters and their interactions with him may glean further insight into Mr. Plumber's motivations and inner psychology.

Dying For A Voice To Be Heard Mary Baker, 2019-09-09 I entitled my book Dying for a Voice to Be Heard because as a child the adults in my life wanted me to be silent My own mother did not want my siblings and me to tell anyone about my father's abuse because she didn't want us My father didn't want us to tell anyone because he didn't want to pay child support or go to jail My own grandmother did not like me because of the complexion of my skin I remember sitting at the table being happy and smiling and she looked at me and said A girl like you should not be smiling I could not comprehend why a girl like me should not be smiling and I could not ask my grandmother why she said that because I would have been in trouble The worst part of my childhood was I had no one to run to I couldn't tell anybody and there was nobody to save me Everyone knew we were held prisoners in our own home However everyone stayed silent It came to a point where we understood why we had to stay quiet my siblings and I We knew if we ran to our mother's house she would not nurture or support us However if we kept silent and stayed with our father at least we would have support and food on the table and a bed to sleep in In order for us to have the basic things that kids should automatically have However with having the basic needs met as a kid it required us to be physically and emotionally abused We had to take the frustration of being silent almost caused me to almost commit suicide I felt there was no reason to live I had to make a choice I came to a decision that I was going to commit a sin and take my life My choice was I was going to have a say in the direction my life was going When I finally left my abusive father at thirteen I knew I would never return I obtained my voice to say no more I would not accept this drama in my life anymore I was dying inside as a little girl just wanting to be heard but since I made that first step to my journey in life I haven't stopped talking
