The Trouble with Wedding Dates Liza Kline, 2017-03-07 MacKenzie's mom won't stop hounding her to find a date for her sister's wedding but securing a suitable date isn't easy when you've got more curves than most. As if that pressure isn't enough, her best friend Grant MacDaniels shows up unexpectedly at 2 AM leading to consequences she never saw coming. Now with secrets piling up and everyone around her in the dark, MacKenzie must navigate the chaos without letting it all unravel. What's a girl to do when she's juggling family expectations, hidden truths, and a best friend who's suddenly become more than she bargained for.

The Kids Market James U. McNeal, 1999 This book has three parts: 1. an overview, 2. myths and realities about children as a market, chapters 1-8, and 3. myths and realities about children's responses to marketing behaviour, chapters 9-21. The first eight chapters describe myths and their realities regarding children as a market segment. I demonstrate the enormous market potential children hold today is far beyond the penny candy potential once attributed to them. I characterize children as not one but three markets: a current market spending their own money on their own wants and needs, an influence market spending mom's and dad's money on their own wants and needs, and a future market for all goods and services. In the third part of the book, chapters 9 through 21, I detail children's reactions to marketing, specifically their responses to stores, products, including social products, brands, advertising, promotion, public relations, and packaging.

Preface Shelterforce, 1998 Halloween Kills: The Official Movie Novelization Tim Waggoner, 2021-10-26 The official novelization of the highly anticipated sequel to 2018's Halloween starring Jamie Lee Curtis. Minutes after Laurie Strode, her daughter Karen, and granddaughter Allyson left masked monster Michael Myers caged and burning in Laurie's basement, Laurie is rushed to the hospital with life-threatening injuries, believing she finally killed her lifelong tormentor. But when Michael manages to free himself from Laurie's trap, his ritual bloodbath resumes. As Laurie fights her pain and prepares to defend herself against him, she inspires all of Haddonfield to rise up against their unstoppable monster. But as a group of other survivors of Michael's first rampage decide to take matters into their own hands, a vigilante mob forms that sets out to hunt Michael down. Evil dies tonight.

Candy Bites Richard W. Hartel, AnnaKate Hartel, 2014-03-28 This delicious new book reveals the fascinating science behind some of our favorite candies. If you've ever wondered how candy corn is made or whether Baby Ruth bars really float as in the movie Caddyshack, then this engaging collection of food for thought is guaranteed to satisfy your hunger for knowledge. As well as delving into candy facts and myths such as the so-called sugar high and the long history of making sweetmeats, the authors explore the chemistry of a candy store full of famous treats from Tootsie Rolls to Pixy Stix and from Jawbreakers to Jordan Almonds. They reveal what makes bubble gum bubbly and why a Charleston Chew is so chewy. Written in an engaging, accessible, and humorous style that makes you laugh as you learn, Candy Bites doesn't shy away from the hard facts or the hard questions about candy. It tackles the chemistry of hydrocolloids in gummy bears alongside the relationship between candy and obesity and between candy and dental cavities. The chapters

Hoelscher, 2021-08-09 In Art as Information Ecology Jason A Hoelscher offers not only an information theory of art but an aesthetic theory of information Applying close readings of the information theories of Claude Shannon and Gilbert Simondon to 1960s American art Hoelscher proposes that art is information in its aesthetic or indeterminate mode information oriented less toward answers and resolvability than toward questions irresolvability and sustained difference These irresolvable differences Hoelscher demonstrates fuel the richness of aesthetic experience by which viewers glean new information and insight from each encounter with an artwork In this way art constitutes information that remains in formation a difference that makes a difference that keeps on differencing Considering the works of Frank Stella Robert Morris Adrian Piper the Drop City commune Eva Hesse and others Hoelscher finds that art exists within an information ecology of complex feedback between artwork and artworld that is driven by the unfolding of difference By charting how information in its aesthetic mode can exist beyond today's strictly quantifiable and monetizable forms Hoelscher reconceives our understanding of how artworks work and how information operates
