There are 2 main parts of our Toastmasters club meeting. Firstly, The Table Topics Session, where members can practise their "Thinking and Speaking on their feet" skills. This session is also known as the Impromptu Speech section.

In Part 2, which is the Prepared Speech session, we have members who will be delivering speeches based on the 10 projects from the basic Communication & Leadership Manual. In addition, As well as 2 speakers who will be presenting their Advanced Projects.

As Toastmaster of the Day, it is my duty to introduce the appointment holders who will assist in the running of today's programme.

TIMER

To keep track of the time spent by each speaker, we have a Timer and he is Toastmaster Pan Heng.

To handle the administrative and logistics matters we have our very own Sergeant-At-Arms for today's meeting. He is Toastmaster Gong Ruibin.

Now this is the moment that all of us are waiting for, the "Table Topics" session. This is the "Impromptu speaking" session. Pl volunteer yourself for this speech.

The time allocated for each speaker is 2 minutes. At the 1st minute, the green lights will be switched on by the timer. At 1 min 30 sec, the amber light will be switched on and at 2 minutes, the red light will be shown. The buzzer will be activated at 2 mins 30 secs. To make the session more challenging each member or guest is provided with a voting slip. To qualify for a voting, the participant must speak for at least 1 minute and not more than 2 mins 30 secs. At the end of the session you will be casting your vote and the Sergeant At arms will collect your voting slip from you. So do take up the challenge and speak.
