Sakellariou, 2012-06-11 POLITICS OF OCCUPATION CENTRED PRACTICE Reflections on occupational engagement across cultures Politics of Occupation Centred Practice Reflections on occupational engagement across cultures addresses the cultural aspects of occupational identity and draws out the implications for practice moving beyond the clinical environment to include the occupational therapist's work in the wider community. It explores the development of individual occupational narratives, community traditions and their roots in everyday experiences, offering a range of examples from distinctive populations to demonstrate approaches to forming sustainable occupational engagements. Chapters span such key areas as Experiences of Disaster, Social Inclusion, Disability and Participation, and Sexuality, Disability, Cultures and Occupation. This cutting edge text, coordinated by two distinguished researchers and educators in the global field of occupational therapy and science, is designed to meet the needs of students studying the conceptual foundations of occupational therapy, occupational science, role emerging practice, occupational justice, community development and community based rehabilitation. The book will also be of interest to academics and practitioners exploring new practice contexts created by the drive to address the diversity and inclusion agenda.

The 150 Best American Recipes Fran McCullough, Molly Stevens, 2006. The Best of the Best from the Last Decade. Acclaimed by the critics, The Best American Recipes series has long been the universal choice of home cooks and professional chefs as the one infallible source of the year's most dazzling recipes. Now in The 150 Best American Recipes, two of the food world's most respected professionals pull out all the stops to create the ultimate resource a can't live without it collection of the most exciting recipes of the last decade. Out of literally tens of thousands of recipes that have appeared in print in cookbooks, magazines, newspapers and even in flyers and on the Internet, from the deservedly famous to the wonderfully obscure, from top flight chefs to unknown but gifted cooks, they chose the most distinctive. Then came the key step: extensive testing in their own kitchens. If the dish wasn't spectacular, it didn't make the cut. Finally, they pitted their favorites against one another and chose the winners: the very best of the best. In The 150 Best American Recipes, you'll find scores of brilliantly simple dishes that are sensationally delicious. The best recipes from the great chefs and cooks of the era, including Jamie Oliver, Thomas Keller, Judy Rodgers and Alice Waters. Miraculously quick, remarkable everyday dishes that you'll want to make countless times and share with your friends. Holiday dishes that are certain to become instant traditions in your family. Valuable tips and techniques to make all your cooking easier.
