Languages and Publics Susan Gal, Kathryn Woolard, 2014-10-14. The essays in this collection examine the public construction of languages the linguistic construction of publics and the relationship between these two processes. Cultural categories such as named languages linguistic standards and genres are the products of expert knowledge as well as of linguistic ideologies more widely shared among speakers. Translation grammars and dictionaries the policing of correctness folklore collections and linguistic academies are all part of the work that produces not only languages but also social groups and spheres of action such as the public. Such representational processes are the topic of inquiry in this volume. They are explored as crucial aspects of power figuring among the means for establishing inequality imposing social hierarchy and mobilizing political action. Contributions to this volume investigate two related questions first how different images of linguistic phenomena gain social credibility and political influence and secondly the role of linguistic ideology and practices in the making of political authority. Using both historical and ethnographic approaches they examine empirical cases ranging from small scale societies to multi ethnic empire from nineteenth century linguistic theories to contemporary mass media and from Europe to Oceania to the Americas. Contributors include Susan Gal Kathryn Woolard Judith Irvine Richard Bauman Michael Silverstein Jane Hill Joseph Errington Bambi Schieffelin Jacqueline Urla and Ben Lee.

Mental Health, Social Media, and the Meta Dov Greenbaum ,Nazanin Alavi, 2024-11-11 One of the most damaging externalities from the recent pandemic has been the rise in mental health issues Many psychiatric disorders have strong genetic components and although the extent of the genetic influence for many conditions has been extensively tested by genome wide association studies GWAS there remains much to be understood regarding the genetics of these health issues Twin studies for example have found a relatively high rate of inheritance for depression and anxiety disorders To better appreciate the role that genetics plays in these disorders it is useful to understand the extent to which other factors also contribute to the condition Other major contributing factors to mental disorders are the environment and psychological factors These environmental and psychological concerns have been further exacerbated by the growth of social media and the requirement especially for young adults and teenagers to always be on It is likely that the metaverse in whatever form it ultimately takes will further exacerbate these conditions On the other hand social media and the metaverse can be tools to help those suffering from mental health conditions Online therapists and bots can provide frontline care to those who can't or won't go to an in person therapy session AI can be employed to provide some forms of therapy in light of the growing demand for licensed therapists and the limited supply Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific Martha

Macintyre, 2014-06-01 Fast money schemes in Papua New Guinea collectivities in rural Solomon Islands gambling in the Cook Islands and the Vanuatu tax haven all feature in the interface between Pacific and global economies Since the 1970s Melanesian countries and their peoples have been beguiled by the prospect of economic development that would enable them to participate in a world market economic system Access to global markets would provide the means to improve their standard of living allowing them to take their places as independent nations in a modern world Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific takes a broad sweep through contemporary topics in Melanesian anthropology and ethnography With nuanced and rigorous scholarship it views contemporary debate on modernity in Melanesia within the context of the global economy and cultural capitalism In particular contributors assess local ideas about wealth success speculation and development and their connections to participation in institutions and activities generated by them This innovative and accessible collection offers a new intersection between Western Pacific anthropology and global studies The Child's Reality D. Elkind, 2014-05-22 First published in 1978 Focusing essentially on his own research and clinical observations David Elkind the clinician researcher and educator has in these lectures both extended and further refined and defined the significance and utility of Piagetian concepts in understanding infant child and adolescent development The Political Economy of Food System Transformation Danielle Resnick, Johan F. M. Swinnen, 2023 Although the global food system increasingly is viewed as unsustainable for human and planetary health the policy pathways for transforming the status quo are often highly contentious This book brings together inter disciplinary scholars to analyze the political economy dynamics central to food system transformation and to identify pathways for enhancing the political feasibility of necessary reforms Drawing on original surveys interviews empirical modeling and case studies from around the world the book delves into the power dynamics interest group coalitions narratives and institutional structures that shape decisions related to agricultural productivity agro industry trade and food consumption
