4. How do a person's decisions and actions change his/her life?
5. How do the decisions and actions of characters reveal their personalities?
6. Make Twain was critical about the injustices of his society. What kinds of things does he criticize? What would Twain think about the way young people live today?

Writing Prompts (free-writes, starters, writer's café, essay topics, etc.)

CCS Writing 9, 10

1. What is Mark Twain's style of writing? (Note to teachers: Helping students become familiar with the structure of the novel—dialogue interspersed with narrative—and the somewhat old-fashioned language and references of the period, will help them successfully read the rest of the novel. Additionally, explaining that the chapter titles are summaries of that chapter's action will help)
2. What was childhood like for Tom Sawyer and his friends? What was your childhood like? How has childhood changed?
3. How is our society different/the same as the society of St. Petersburg?
4. What does this quote mean? "He had discovered a great law of human action, without knowing it--namely, that in order to make a man or a boy covet a thing, it is only necessary to make the thing difficult to attain." Chapter 2
5. Tom Sawyer is an adventurous troublemaker who doesn't pay much attention to the rules of society. Describe some examples of this from the book.
6. Which character in the book are you most like? Explain why you think so.
7. Mark Twain comments on several aspects of the St. Petersburg community that he thinks are hypocritical. Find an example from the book that shows hypocrisy (ie the community thinks of Tom and his friends as annoying rascals for most of the book; but at their "funeral," the boys are fondly lauded.)
8. Find a sentence in Tom Sawyer that makes you laugh out loud. Explain why it is so funny.
