Basic Tonic Solfa Concepts Omphemetse Chimbombi, 2007-04 Basic Tonic Solfa Concepts is an illustrative guide that tries to simplify and smoothen the learning path for tonic solfa notation users. It brings under one package the easiest methods and techniques of yielding the best choral performance through proper notes or music reading interpretation and a well focused training program. The book acts as a guide for both lay and professional music instructors as well as choristers by drawing upon the basic components of the best choral performance. It is useful for both ensemble performances and solo singing.

The Recorder's Book for Easy Learning Akolawole DADA, 2019-02-11 INTRODUCTION This book is written and designed for a beginner who will be able to teach him herself how to play a recorder and understand some theories of music with ease. Again, this book will be of a great help to students in understanding the practical aspects of music both at the primary and secondary school levels. These days, compositions have become a difficult task amidst the choir such that having their own copyright to musical compositions have become rare; rather, songs from unknown sources are embraced. For this reason, church music has become less spiritual. 1Cor 14:15b. However, this book will enhance the composing and singing abilities of choir in our various churches. It will also help them to sight sing lots of great gospel songs and hymns with tonic solfa. Churches are advised to recommend this book for their choir. In conclusion, this book contains lots of practical works that are playable with any other musical instrument like saxophone, trumpet, piano, guitar, clarinet, flute, violin, etc. Therefore, parents are requested to encourage their children by buying them the book The Recorder's Book for Easy Learning with great gospel songs, hymns, tonic solfa, and any musical instrument of their choice apart from the recorder which the book centers on. This will indeed help them to showcase their God-given talents.

Bury Me at the Marketplace N. Chabani Manganyi, David Attwell, 2009-11-01 When Chabani Manganyi published the first edition of selected letters twenty-five years ago as a companion volume to Exiles and Homecomings: A Biography of Es'kia Mphahlele, the idea of Mphahlele's death was remote and poetic. The title Bury Me at the Marketplace suggested that immortality of a kind awaited Mphahlele in the very coming and going of those who remember him and whose lives he touched. It suggested too the energy and magnanimity of Mphahlele, the man whose personality and intellect as a writer and educator would carve an indelible place for him in South Africa's public sphere. That death has now come and we mourn it. Manganyi's words at the time have acquired a new significance in the symbolic marketplace; he noted the drama of life continues relentlessly and the silence of death is unmasked for all time. The silence of death is certainly unmasked in this volume in its record of Mphahlele's rich and varied life: his private words, his passions and obsessions, his arguments, his loves, hopes, achievements, and yes even some of his failures. Here the reader will find many facets of the private man translated back into the marketplace of public memory. Despite the personal nature of the letters, the further horizons of this volume are the contours of South Africa's literary and cultural history, the international affiliations out of which it has been formed.

particularly in the diaspora that connects South Africa to the rest of the African continent and to the black presence in Europe and the United States This selection of Mphahlele's own letters has been greatly expanded it has also been augmented by the addition of letters from Mphahlele's correspondents among them such luminaries as Langston Hughes and Nadine Gordimer It seeks to illustrate the networks that shaped Mphahlele's personal and intellectual life the circuits of intimacy intellectual inquiry of friendship scholarship and solidarity that he created and nurtured over the years The letters cover the period from November 1943 to April 1987 forty four of Mphahlele's mature years and most of his active professional life The correspondence is supplemented by introductory essays from the two editors by two interviews conducted with Mphahlele by Manganyi and by Attwell's insightful explanatory notes Dictionary Catalog of the Music Collection New York Public Library. Reference Department, 1964

Music in Kenyan Christianity Jean Ngoya Kidula, 2013-09-11 The book contains an excellent mix of deep personal understanding of the culture and copious documentation Eric Charry Wesleyan University This sensitive study is a historical cultural and musical exploration of Christian religious music among the Logooli of Western Kenya It describes how new musical styles developed through contact with popular radio and other media from abroad and became markers of the Logooli identity and culture Jean Ngoya Kidula narrates this history of a community through music and religious expression in local national and global settings The book is generously enhanced by audiovisual material on the Ethnomusicology Multimedia website The archival and ethnographic research is outstanding the accounts of mission history and then the musical explanations of a variety of forms of change that have accompanied mission intervention the incursion of forms of modernity and globalization at large are compelling and unparalleled Carol Muller University of Pennsylvania Explores contemporary African music through the prism of ethnographies through the people's engagement of Christianity as a unifying ideology in the context of history modernity nationalisms and globalisation Journal of Modern African Studies The meticulous and sometimes highly sophisticated musical analyses transcriptions and the rich historical and ethnographic perspectives illuminate not only ongoing discourses and contestations of syncretism and related analytical notions they also represent a plausible model of a balanced approach to ethnomusicology International Journal of African Historical Studies An essential text for thinking about world Christianities because it approaches a particular African Christianity from both insider and outsider perspectives Global Forum on Arts and Christian Faith

Hymns and Constructions of Race Erin Johnson-Williams, Philip Burnett, 2024-02-07 Hymns and Constructions of Race Mobility Agency De Coloniality examines how the hymn historically and today has reinforced negotiated and resisted constructions of race It brings together diverse perspectives from musicology ethnomusicology theology anthropology performance studies history and postcolonial scholarship to show how the hymn has perpetuated generated and challenged racial identities The global range of contributors cover a variety of historical and geographical contexts with case studies from China and Brazil to Suriname and South Africa They explore the hymn as a product of imperialism and settler colonialism and as a vehicle for sonic oppression and or resistance within and beyond congregational settings The volume contends that the lived tradition of hymn singing with its connections to centuries of global Christian mission is a particularly apt lens for examining both local and global negotiations of race power and identity It will be relevant for scholars interested in religion music race and postcolonialism
