Locations play an important role in every story but in British and American contemporary crime fiction they are often inextricable from the narrative This work examines the city the countryside and the wilderness as places ripe with literary significance and symbolism Using works by authors like Robert Galbraith Ian Rankin Denise Mina Chris Brookmyre John Knox Peter Robinson Linda Barnes Dana Stabenow Nevada Barr Les Roberts Philip R Craig and others this work offers a fresh assessment of how place and space are employed in contemporary crime fiction Highlighted are similarities and differences among the authors' approaches to setting and how they relate to the history of crime fiction and to the general literary representation of place Going beyond mere literary geography the book engages the sociocultural dimensions of the communities affected by crime Chapters also analyze the reader's perception recognition and appreciation of place and community

Catalano,2023-09-09 This study presents Moby Dick as a novel with three distinct but interconnecting stories Ishmael's which he shares ten years after it has taken place Ahab's which is Ishmael's account of the memorable captain of a whaling ship and a third which centres on whales and whaling which has not received significant critical attention While each of these perspectives compete for prominence in the narrative Ahab and Ishmael's stories have often distracted from the vital significance of the whaling narrative as what outlasts Ahab's obsessive mission Catalano rights this wrong by coming to a strikingly original and thought provoking conclusion which becomes the heart of the book's argument the unity of Melville's book comes first from the way the numerous literary philosophical and religious reflections are rooted in those magnificent beings whales and in the men and ships that pursue them and second in the way these reflections illuminate our own lives
