Harper,2012-12-07 A guide to the modes and methods of Creative Writing research designed to be invaluable to university staff and students in formulating research ideas and in selecting appropriate strategies Creative writing researchers from around the globe offer a selection of models that readers can explore and on which they can build Existential Concerns and Cognitive-Behavioral Procedures Ross G. Menzies,Rachel E. Menzies,Genevieve A. Dingle,2022-08-11 Clients enter therapy grappling with a range of difficulties They don t speak in diagnostic terms but instead focus on the everyday problems that confront them Their struggles may include isolation loneliness anxiety guilt and regret and problems making decisions in a world that offers seemingly endless choice In contrast the cognitive behavior therapist is trained in the language of conditioning and extinction avoidance and safety behaviors behavioral activation and attentional biases This book explores the ideas of the existentialist philosophers as a bridge between the suffering client and technically trained clinician The volume is not a rejection of cognitive behavior therapy CBT but seeks to place CBT in the broader context of the most popular philosophic tradition of the 19th and 20th centuries Therapists versed in existentialism argue that the individual's starting point is characterized by a sense of disorientation in the face of an apparently meaningless and absurd world Each individual must become solely responsible for giving meaning to life and living it passionately and authentically Each of us must confront the Big 5 existential issues of death isolation identity freedom and meaning and find our solutions to these problems The present volume explores each of these existential themes in turn Each section opens with a theoretical chapter describing the relevant existential dilemma and its impact on human experience The second chapter in each section explores its relationship to mental health disorders and psychopathology The third chapter in each section explores the evidence for treating the existential issue from a CBT framework This book will be of value to those interested in CBT philosophy and mental health and will appeal to psychotherapists clinical psychologists and psychiatrists The Doctoral Experience Donna Lee Brien, Craig Batty, Elizabeth Ellison, Alison Owens, 2020-01-03 This book offers important insights into the challenging yet rewarding journey of undertaking a PhD Written by students for students the book explores a range of case studies from creative arts and humanities doctoral students embracing a cognitive emotional and transformational metaphor of the journey The volume is organised around themes and concerns identified as important by PhD students such as building resilience and working with supervisors and includes personal stories case studies scholarly signposts and key take away points relevant to all doctoral settings With perspectives from all stages of the doctoral journey this book is sure to become a valuable support to students and supervisors alike as well as those working in research education and training

Pocket Net Browser Dheeraj Mehrotra, 2003 Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery

Bygone Brisbane Rod Fisher, 2016-06-03 Like putting old wine into new bottles this collection of 7 papers by historian Rod Fisher offers a goodly drop for anyone thirsting for the history and heritage of the Brisbane region They were originally written from 1991 2010 only a couple having seen the light of day That was because they were mostly commissioned at greater length and dealt with specific issues

- 1 How midnight demolitions of the old Bellevue Hotel Cloudland Ballroom and Commonwealth Bank brought about the 1st protective heritage legislation in Qld
- 2 To what extent the oral testimony of continuity and descent of the Turrbal people around Brisbane was matched by the historical record
- 3 How Yeronga Memorial Pk evolved physically and spatially since the early days and by what means
- 4 What steps and actions caused Lang Pk to change from a public space to a venue primarily for a single spectator sport
- 5 How to write the contextual history for a thematic study exhibition on the Brisbane River which would draw upon the disparate collections of 6 mostly non river institutions
- 6 How the whole region of SE Qld developed thematically and materially including Brisbane Ipswich Toowoomba both coasts major islands many valleys and various ranges
- 7 Whether heritage theory and practice should be focussed more sustainably on the character of a locality as tested on the Killarney Estate

Having been revised as necessary and collected together these papers are a boon for everyone interested in those aspects places buildings events related persons and much more If you happen to be a glutton for research these chapters also show the way That includes discerning patterns analysing records exploring buildings interpreting parks assessing heritage examining localities investigating regions and structuring narratives Among the many historical sources are municipal records reserve files parliamentary papers state yearbooks municipal handbooks heritage reports judicial records newspapers maps pictures graves and of course the actual places and people themselves Here we see the applied historian at work The other tie that binds all of this together is the author s conviction that history must speak for itself so that only when familiar with the evidence ought we evaluate interpret and shape it in our own image This also applies to cultural heritage which comprises all of those tangible and intangible things we want to retain for ourselves and the next generation As that is but one type of historical evidence there is a dynamic reciprocity between the two What this book really shows is how history becomes heritage through establishing its significance unless heritage becomes history first
