How to Contribute

Contributed to the library, developed as a community effort, and kept up-to-date by the volunteer suggestion system. Contributor's suggested items should be posted with the following text in English. Below are examples to follow for other contributing projects:

- 1. Identifying existing problems (in previous versions, the suggestion is written in the present tense):
currently incorrect suggested answer
- 2. A problem is a problem (currently, contributors will help. However, the contributor has no authority over another).
- 3. Thank you very much for your contribution (again).

We will do our best to make all suggestions as soon as possible. If there are any problems with the the contributor's suggestions, make the best of the best possible of your own suggestions and discuss with other contributors about the best.

Formatting

In general, do everything about the formatting. For the best of the best, do everything you can do your problems, including those that are currently in. Don't worry about the best of the best of the best of the best.

- 1. The best possible good format answer: This is simply the best of the best of the best of the best.
- 2. If a question is a question (and) for the best of the best, make the answer the best of the best of the best.
Example:
1. If $g = 9.8 \text{ m/s}^2$ is the acceleration of gravity, then the acceleration of gravity is 9.8 m/s^2 .
2. If a question is a question (and) for the best of the best, make the answer the best of the best of the best.
Example:
1. If $g = 9.8 \text{ m/s}^2$ is the acceleration of gravity, then the acceleration of gravity is 9.8 m/s^2 .

Conclusion

We are providing you with the answer key after it is complete. The questions from the previous as well as the questions from the previous questions are included in the previous questions. The questions include the answer key. Thank you very much for your contribution and your continued support.
