Theme for 2021: Customs

Customs. We all have them. Customs and traditions are the things that can bind us together as a culture, or can tear us apart. This has become evident so strongly in the last year as we all navigated the Covid pandemic, but we don't have to search far into our past to identify pre-pandemic customs that have identified us as a people. Customs can hinder us as well as help us, as we see in literature like Shirley Jackson's "The Lottery" or Suzanne Collins' The Hunger Games. Love them or hate them, customs help define us as a people.

For this year's contest, write a short story of 5,000 words or less that in some way relates to the theme of customs. Stories can be in any genre (realistic, speculative, sci-fi, romance, horror, etc.), but must connect in some way to the idea of customs.

How to Submit: email your story to Mr. Stumbaugh at:

bstumbaugh@voorheesville.org

Stories must be submitted as an attachment in .rtf, .doc, .docx, .odt, or .txt format. Do not include the story in the body of your email!
