The Heart Sutra Osho, 2014-09-09 The Heart Sutra originally a very short set of verses was given in privacy It was a message to one of Buddha's close disciples Sariputra and was specifically addressed to him Over time the Heart Sutra became one of Buddhism's core teachings In these ten talks Osho presents the powerful message of these ancient words and brings them to a modern audience one with different minds and needs than the original audiences of Buddha more than 2 500 years ago Osho's message is not about Buddha the historical figure instead he addresses his readers and listeners and encourages them to discover their own inner reality their own buddhahood Like Buddha's Osho's message is about meditation and meditation alone rely only on your meditation and nothing else Osho also speaks on the seven chakras the energy centers of the human body and their corresponding relationships to the physical psychosomatic psychological psychospiritual spiritual spiritual transcendental and transcendental aspects of human growth and consciousness

Half in Love With Death Joel Paris, 2017-09-25 Half in Love With Death presents a new way for therapists to manage chronically suicidal patients an incredibly challenging task for clinicians and one where an insufficient amount of literature exists to guide professionals Author Joel Paris suggests an approach that defies conventional wisdoms about whether suicide can be predicted or prevented He asserts that managing chronically suicidal patients begins with tolerating suicidality understanding the inner world of patients avoiding repeated hospitalizations and focusing on life situations that maintain suicidal ideas and behaviors Each chapter in the book develops a theoretical perspective based on empirical data and many are illustrated by clinical examples Topics addressed throughout the text include distinctions among various types of suicidality the inner world of the chronically suicidal patient with a particular focus on pain emptiness and hopelessness the relationship between chronic

suicidality and personality disorders especially the category of borderline personality the effectiveness of psychotherapy and pharmacotherapy for chronically suicidal patients and the risks of litigation in managing this patient population This volume is a crucially important resource for clinicians who treat chronically suicidal patients as it fills a gap in existing literature and provides enlightened guidelines that stem from a large body of research in the field Too Brief a Treat Truman

Capote,2012-05-15 The private letters of Truman Capote lovingly assembled here for the first time by acclaimed Capote biographer Gerald Clarke provide an intimate unvarnished portrait of one of the twentieth century s most colorful and fascinating literary figures Capote was an inveterate letter writer He wrote letters as he spoke emphatically spontaneously and passionately Spanning more than four decades his letters are the closest thing we have to a Capote autobiography showing us the uncannily self possessed na f who jumped headlong into the post World War II New York literary scene the more mature Capote of the 1950s the Capote of the early 1960s immersed in the research and writing of In Cold Blood and Capote later in life as things seem to be unraveling With cameos by a veritable who s who of twentieth century glitterati Too Brief a Treat shines a spotlight on the life and times of an incomparable American writer Melancholy, Love, and Time
