Essay Writing Made Easy Stephen McLaren, 2004-10 Second Language Writers' Text Eli Hinkel, 2002-01-01 This comprehensive and detailed analysis of second language writers' text identifies explicitly and quantifiably where their text differs from that of native speakers of English The book is based on the results of a large scale study of university level native speaker and non native speaker essays written in response to six prompts Specifically the research investigates the frequencies of uses of 68 linguistic syntactic and lexical and rhetorical features in essays written by advanced non native speakers compared with those in the essays of native speakers enrolled in first year composition courses The selection of features for inclusion in this analysis is based on their textual functions and meanings as identified in earlier research on English language grammar and lexis Such analysis is valuable because it can inform the teaching of grammar and lexis as well as discourse and serve as a basis for second language curriculum and course design and provide valuable insight for second language pedagogical applications of the study's findings Logical Matters: Essays in Ancient Philosophy II

Jonathan Barnes, 2012-12-13 The second volume of Jonathan Barnes' papers on ancient philosophy contains twenty seven pieces under the broad heading of Logic The essays were written over a period of some forty years Some of them were published in obscure places and two or three of them in a foreign language The French essays have been done into English and all the essays have been retouched and a few of them substantially revised The first three essays in the volume are of a general nature being concerned with ancient views on the status of logic and with the distinction between formal and material inferences The next nine items deal with different aspects of Aristotelian logic the copula negation the categories homonymy and the principle of contradiction Then come three papers about the connection or lack of connection between Aristotelian logic and Stoic logic Two of the pieces discuss Theophrastus' theory of hypothetical syllogisms After that things run more or less chronologically a short notice on the Dialecticians three essays on aspects of Stoic logic a pair of papers on ancient theories of meaning items on adverbs and connectors on Philoponus and Boethius and on an anonymous tract written in the autumn of 1007 AD All in all there is matter to divert scholars and students of ancient philosophy Essays. 1901
