Furda,Jacques Steinberg,2021-09-21 From an Ivy League dean and a college admissions expert a guide to help parents support their children as they navigate their way to college The College Conversation is a comprehensive resource for mapping the path through the college application process that provides practical advice and reassurance to keep both anxious parents and confused children sane and grounded Rather than adding to the existing canon of How to Get In college guides or rankings Eric Furda and Jacques Steinberg provide a step by step approach to having the tough conversations on this topic with less stress and more success The book is organized around key discussions and themes that trace the chronological arc of admissions and financial aid beginning before the assembly of a list of potential colleges and continuing through the receipt of decisions with a final section that includes advice on the first year of college The topics include preliminary conversations about the search and specifically how parents can think about their children s interests and what kind of college would best suit them choosing a college based on its curriculum culture and community writing the most effective essays assessing acceptances including considerations of finances and aid and making the transition from high school to college life The College Conversation will provide parents students and counselors with the credible level headed information often missing in this process as well as a much needed dash of perspective borne of experience Conning Harvard Julie Zauzmer,Xi Yu,2013-09-03 In 2011 a 24 year old man pled guilty to falsifying his application to Harvard University bilking the world s most prestigious university out of more than 45 000 in prizes and scholarships Using forged SAT scores transcripts and letters of recommendation Adam Wheeler outsmarted Harvard s admissions office and then went even further Once accepted into the Ivy League he kept lying cheating and succeeding winning thousands of dollars in prizes and grants But then he shot too far During his senior year Wheeler applied for Rhodes and Fulbright scholarships a gamble that finally exposed his extensive tangle of lies Alerted that he was under suspicion

Wheeler fled Harvard but did not stop. He successfully filed more fraudulent applications at top tier schools across the country until some vigilant admissions officers, Massachusetts police, and even his own parents forced him off his computer and into court. As reporters for The Harvard Crimson, Julie Zauzmer and Xi Yu covered the case from the moment the news of Wheeler's indictment broke. In the course of their reporting, they interviewed dozens of friends, roommates, teachers, and advisors who knew Wheeler at the many phases of his suspect academic career. Their fascinating account reveals how one serial scammer took on the competitive world of the Ivy League and almost won. 50 Yale Admission Success Stories. The Staff of the Yale Daily News, 2020-03-17. From the students at the Yale Daily News, a book that highlights the essays that got students into Yale University, helping high school seniors get into the school of their choice. The competition to get into a top tier school becomes more and more fierce every year. Parents and students are searching for the best advice, and the final question they ask after joining clubs in high school and keeping the grades up is: How do I write a winning essay? 50 Yale Admission Success Stories and The Essays that Made Them Happen shows college applicants how to do exactly that, showcasing the Common App essays that got students into Yale, in addition to Yale-specific application essays and other supplemental aspects of the Yale application like short statements and short answers. But this book does more than just show students what kind of essays got college students through the door; it profiles each student who contributed to the collection and puts those essays into context. We meet Edgar Avina, a political science major from Houston who worked odd jobs to support his family who immigrated from Mexico; Madeleine Bender, a New York City native who is a jack of all trades who writes for the Daily News, plays clarinet for a concert band, and majors in both Classics and Ecology Evolutionary Biology. These profiles set this book apart from other college essay books, reminding students that in order to write a strong essay, you must be yourself and understand how the university you're applying to will help you make your greatest dreams into a reality.
