Firmansyah,2018-05-21 Menyederhanakan data yang berlimpah dan mengubahnya menjadi bentuk visual merupakan tantangan tersendiri bagi presenter yang sehari harinya berkutat dengan data Perlu teknik penyajian yang baik sehingga bentuk visual yang informatif ini bisa diterima di beragam media baik offline maupun online Infografis telah menjadi solusi visualisasi data dengan tampilan yang menarik dan pesan yang konkrit Infografis dengan visual yang memukau membuat audience interest to enjoy the information and is reflected in the fact that because infographics have a variety of forms, infographics have begun to emerge from static to dynamic. Many studies mention that moving images are more interesting than static displays. Because of this, animation infographics are known with videographics becoming a new trend for dynamic data visualization with motion graphics. Audience no longer has to read a lot of data but enough to watch a video that presents visually interesting audio information and unique animation that improves the quality of understanding and information. Videographics combine data visualization, story telling, and animation techniques in a harmonious unity. The technique of making them is easy, effective, and very economical, making videographics as an alternative main source of information from advertising, e-learning, online presentation, and offline corporate profile, product publication, research dissemination, and regulation. The importance of videographics as information is embodied in animation requiring a guide that is simple and professional. The book Amazing Slide Videographic is the first reference about animation infographics with Powerpoint in Indonesia. In this book, PakarSlide Dhony Firmansyah opens our vision about the world of visual data and animation. With a simple way, the author manages to reveal animation arrangement techniques for infographics from zero to becoming videographics. You will be introduced with the elements of videographics, the technique of choosing fonts, the technique of recording audio, and how to animate infographics through software Powerpoint with animation results that are comparable with Adobe After Effect and other paid video studio software. With design knowledge that is studied in Japan and Singapore, as well as experience in hundreds of companies, BUMN, and Government, the author proves that his work is worthy of being a main reference for motion infographic in Indonesia.
