Shriver Poikani Kevin:

We Need to Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2011-05-01 The inspiration for the film starring Tilda Swinton and John C Reilly this resonant story of a mother s unsettling quest to understand her teenage son s deadly violence her own ambivalence toward motherhood and the explosive link between them remains terrifyingly prescient Eva never really wanted to be a mother And certainly not the mother of a boy who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a much adored teacher in a school shooting two days before his sixteenth birthday Neither nature nor nurture exclusively shapes a child s character But Eva was always uneasy with the sacrifices and social demotion of motherhood Did her internalized dislike for her own son shape him into the killer he s become How much is her fault Now two years later it is time for her to come to terms with Kevin s horrific rampage all in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her estranged husband Franklin A piercing unforgettable and penetrating exploration of violence and responsibility a book that the Boston Globe describes as impossible to put down is a stunning examination of how tragedy affects a town a marriage and a family
